We stand as a basic element,
Simple in construction
Finite in depth
Numbered in orbit
Moving about in a single sphere . . .

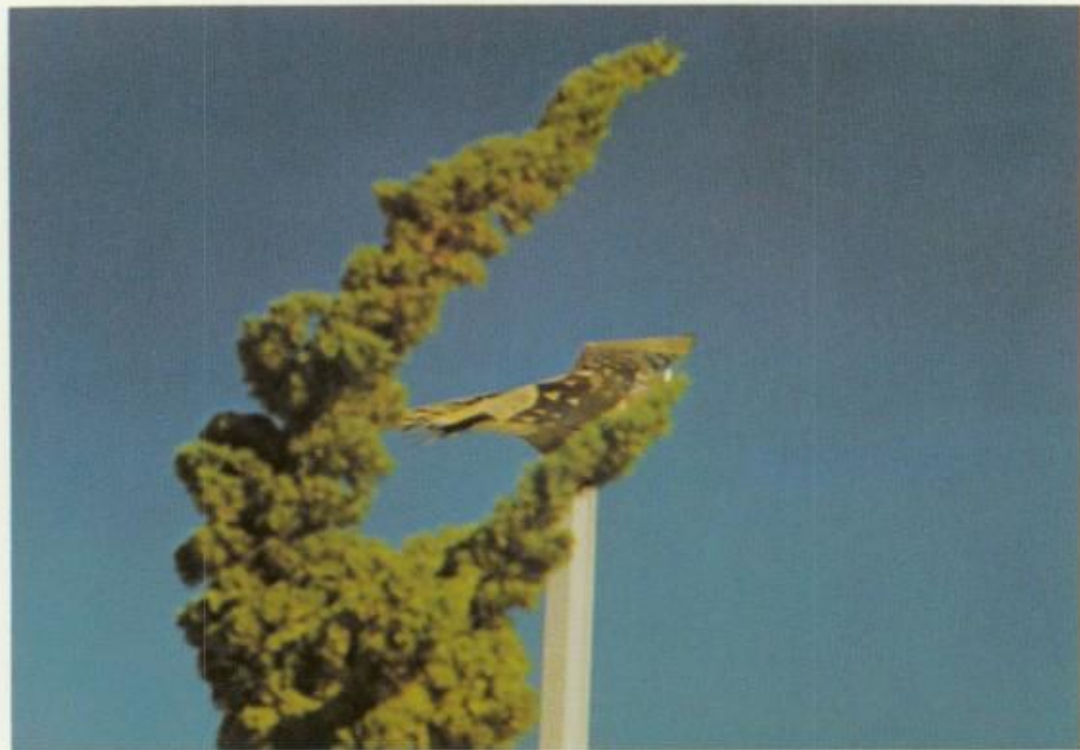

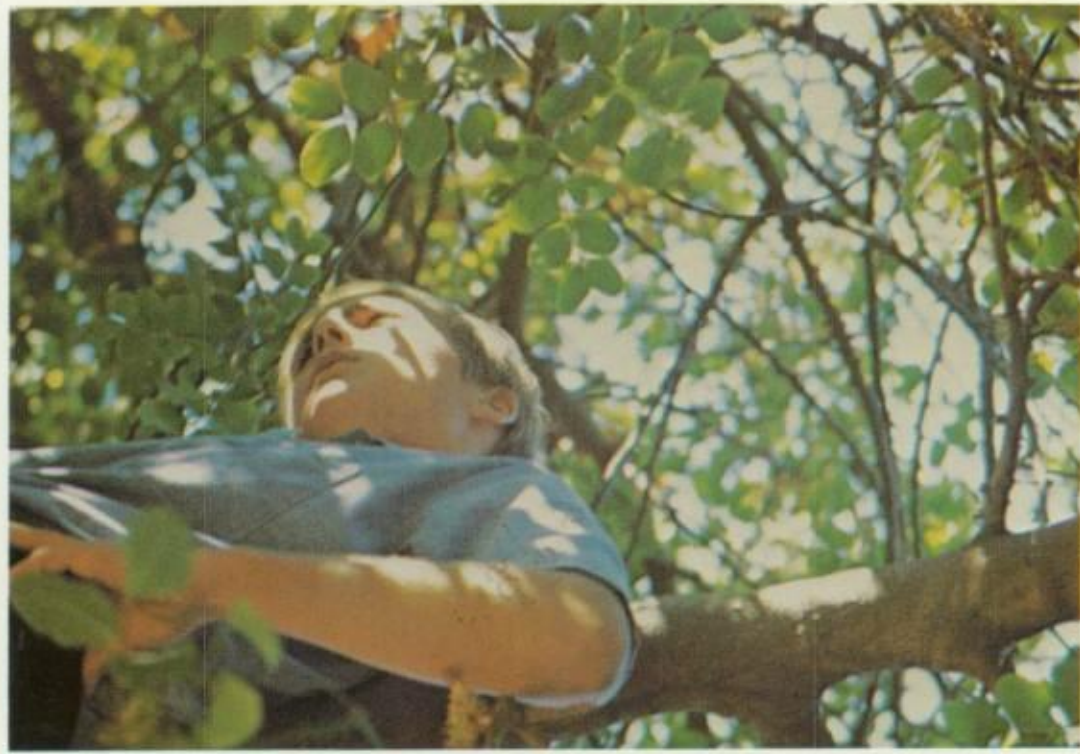

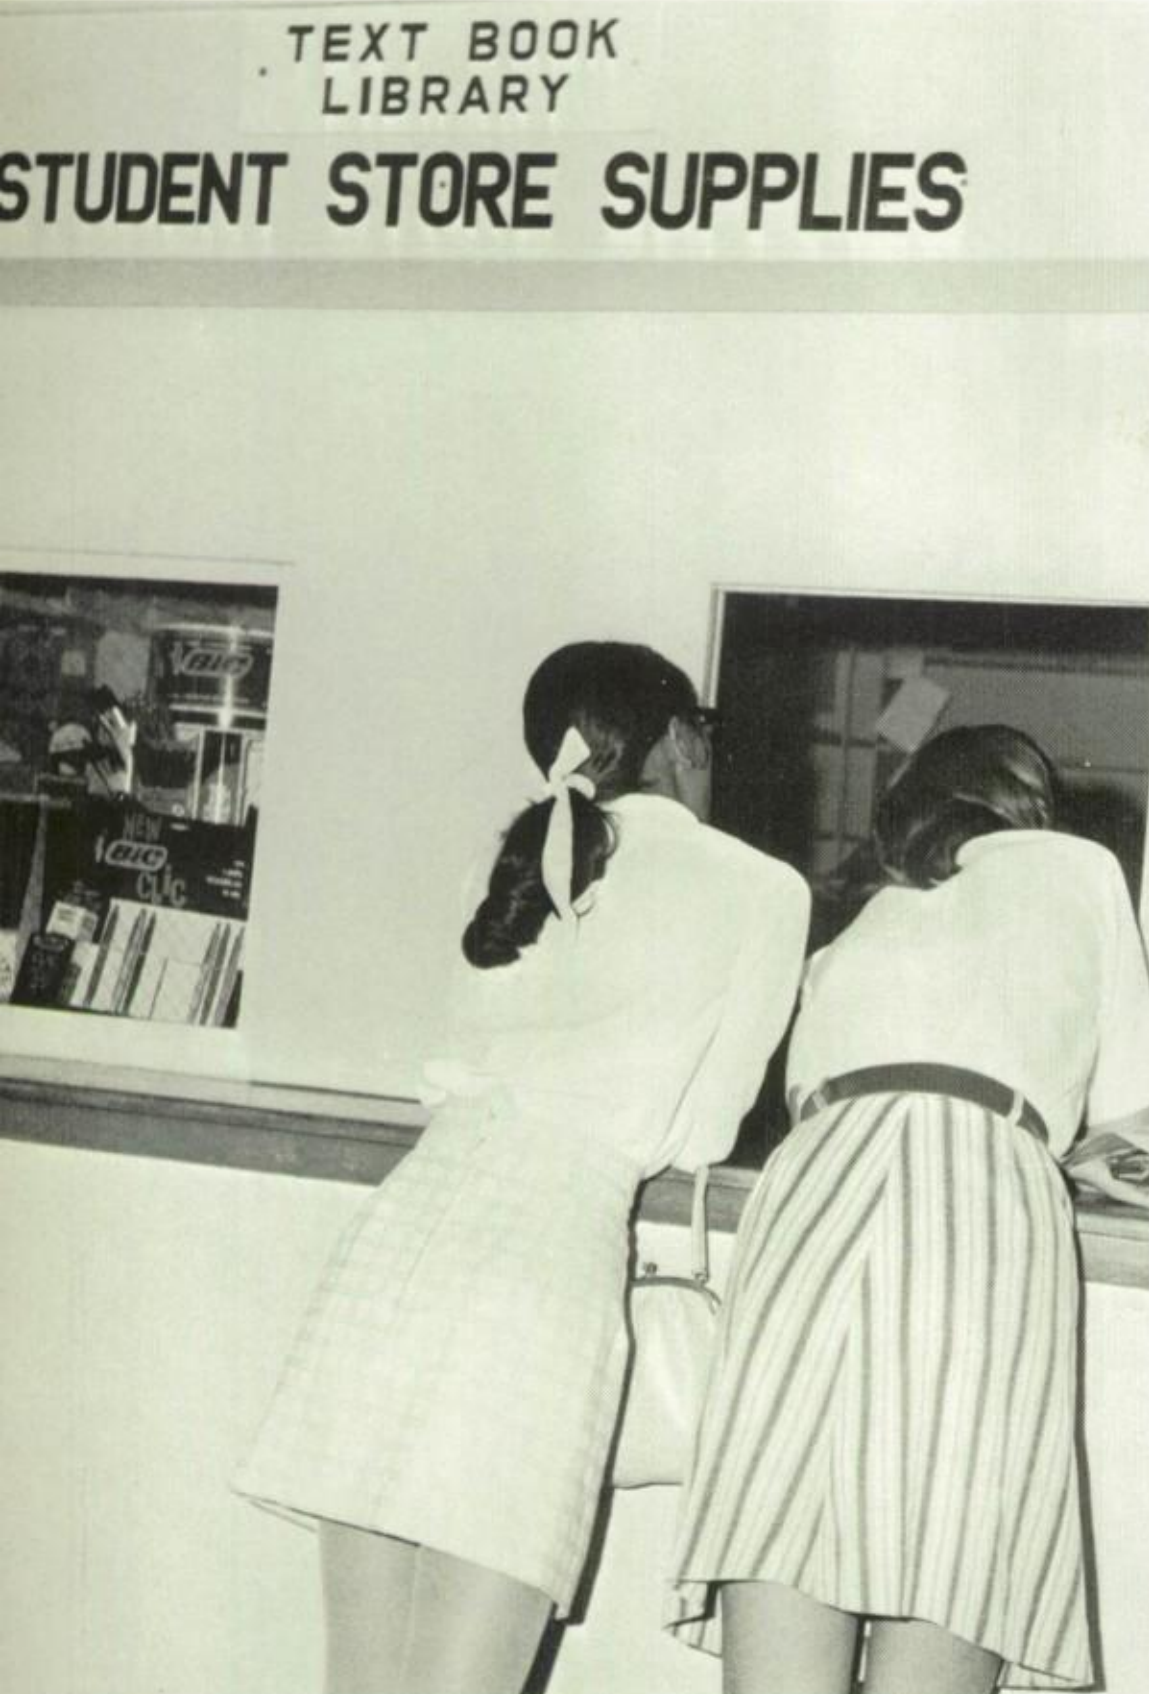

We are soon joined by ever more cycles,
madly spinning about themselves,
adding themselves to the whole.
And as we grow in number we begin to change the original element . . .

In our increasing complicity,
we achieve mounting level upon level of variance,
Our result; a constant individual and overall Change.

Pep Squad Triggers Enthusiasm

The Hawk Pep Squad of '69-70 transformed the lethargy of the RUHS students into support for their Sea Hawk teams. The six Varsity cheerleaders, Jeri Andrews, Valerie Erdmann, Linda Fox, Jim Bernard, Dave Boderoga, and Gary Daigh, though off to a slow start, brought participation to its peak by the third football game. The change made in this year's Pep Squad was the election of Junior Varsity Cheerleaders, Gladys Mejia and Debbie Towler.

The Songleaders, too, were changed this year. Their number, reduced to seven, consisted of Margaret Bradford, Mardi Honaker, Francis Metcalf, Joy Vik, Bonnie Waller, Denise Wiczorek, head songleader, and Leta Yu. Their performances included an appearance at the L.A. County Fair, a half-time show for a Lakers' Game at the Forum, several rallies, parades and competitions. Their support kept the spirit strong at Redondo.

BELOW: Wearing their Friday uniforms Drill Team performed at a noon rally in the new Boys' Gym during Red and White Week prior to the Santa Monica Game.

Certain segments of high school society express themselves in group activities. Among the most popular of these on the Redondo campus was Drill Team, officially the Redondo Union High School Hawkettes. Sixty girls were selected on the basis of ability, precision, dexterity and spirit shown on performance.

The 1969-'70 season Drill Team was under the triple leadership of Captain Barbara Towler, First Lieutenant Kathy Bentley and Second Lieutenant Nancy Headrick. As in the past the three leaders were elected by the Drill Team of the previous year who measure the girls' experience and leadership abilities as the heads of the organization for the succeeding year.

For football games the Drill Team adopted additions to their uniforms. At the Mira Costa game the girls performed in their basic uniform with new vests, hats and red and white gloves. Friday outfits which the Drill Team wears to help bring up enthusiasm for the games were changed from red, white and blue to distinctive plaid culottes complimented by red sweaters.

Mrs. Judi James, sponsor for three years took a leave of absence and was succeeded by Miss Pat Franklin.

J.V. Cheerleaders lead yells at J.V. football and basketball games.

This year's pep squad concentrated its efforts toward leading the crowd in spirit as well as yells throughout the entire year. They backed the teams 100%, and though at times they felt discouraged as they tried to rally support for losing teams, they knew the satisfaction of hearing "We're from Redondo, couldn't be prouder" echo from the crowd. This combined effort and achievement of both cheerleaders and songleaders made their year one to be proud of.

Varsity Cheerleaders surround jump circle from the old boys' gym, a new standing tradition at Redondo.

Mrs. Lois Carah, asst. director and Mr. H. Randy Rude, director.

Activities for the year were opened by the RUHS Band under the direction of Mr. H. Randy Rude. The band began their practices during the summer and spent many hours of rehearsal for the first performance at the PTA Football Carnival. Mr. Rude planned and directed the various halftimes and pre-games throughout football season and contributed his idea of precision drill to the Drill Team. The band supported school activities, participated in parades and festivals and performed for community service projects and concerts. Their new uniforms added to the color and showmanship of their performances. When the year was closed with the Alma Mater at graduation exercises they had many performances behind them.

David Hallgrimson in his third year as drum major deserved a great deal of credit for the many fine performances. The Majorettes, Robin Lake and Janice Langford, offered demonstrations of combined spirit and precision skill. Lynn Biby and Susan Day carried the well known red and white banner before the band in numerous parades and performances.

Mrs. Lois Carah, assistant Band Director, found her place in Redondo as director of the only high school orchestra in the South Bay District.

Red, White Week Inspires Spirit

The Redondo custom of Red and White Week was changed this year. Student body and football team primed themselves to confront and fight Samo Hi on the field.

Activities did not commence until Tuesday when the Junior Class held their candied apple sale. Highlight of Wednesday was the Slave Auction. Key Club sold its members to the general student body. Thursday was the day for Girls' League Powder Puff Football Game. The Sea Hawkettes won over Santa Monica, with the final score, 11-0. "Think Redondo" buttons dotted the campus, part of the Girls' League project to bolster school spirit. The last day of the school week was Sucker Day when Drill Team members hawked their candies from class to class. Many students participated in the Bermuda Day Friday. Excitement on campus was heightened by the first rally in the new Boys' Gym.

Unfortunately, the football team suffered its greatest defeat in the Sea Hawk Bowl from Santa Monica, who beat Redondo in retaliation for Redondo's victory over Samo the previous year.

Following the game, the traditional Red and White Dance was held in the Girls' Gym, given by Semper Comites.

Football Team Chooses Queen

Annually, to culminate the football season, the 64 members of the RUHS drill team sponsored the Varsity Dance. As the theme this year was "San Francisco Nights," the walls of the girls' gym were decorated with the lights of the Bay Bridge. Around the refreshment areas, Chinatown and cable cars which are distinctive to San Francisco carried through the theme.

The court was presented with the background of music provided by "Shades of Dawn." The girls were chosen by the team. Appearing in white dresses instead of the customary skirt and sweater were Sue Armstrong, Margaret Bradford, Valerie Erdmann, Linda Fox, Marvel Griep, Nancy Headrick, Eija Joutsen, Fran Metcalfe, Patti Jo Phillpotts, Teresa Serrato, Joy Vik, and Bonnie Waller. Escorted by the members of the football team, Coach James Archer announced the Varsity Sweetheart, Margaret Bradford. A small gold football on a golden chain was awarded to Margaret. The sweetheart dance was begun by Margaret Bradford and Mark Jarman.

Students Make Prom a Success

To honor the graduating class of 1970, the junior class sponsored the fourth annual Junior-Senior Sweetheart Prom. After three years on the waiting list, RUHS was able to secure the Los Verdes Country Club for the event. From eight until eleven, February 7, the Sea Hawks enjoyed the first semi-formal affair of the year.

Providing the musical background for the Junior-Senior Sweetheart Prom was the four-man band, Those Birminghams! Extremely versatile, Those Birminghams! played excerpts from "Romeo and Juliet." The band's popularity accounted for the large turnout. Mr. James Keema, junior class sponsor, thought that much of the success of the dance was due to the splendid response of the junior and senior classes.

As the dance was held one week before Valentine's Day, the Sweetheart theme was incorporated into the traditional theme of Hearts and Flowers. Hearts were apparent in the table decorations and also in the backdrop for the pictures.

Following the theme, the highlight of the evening was the announcement of the candidates for the honored title, Queen of Hearts. The ten girls were Susan Armstrong, Susan Day, Sandy Glickman, Marvel Griep, Kyle Matthews, Fran Metcalfe, Patti Jo Phillips, Olympia Salmas, Joy Vik, and Bonnie Waller. The finalists were escorted by the basketball Varsity players. After Steve Gray crowned her, Fran Metcalfe, the chosen queen, was presented with roses and a heartshaped pendant with red stones.

RUHS Produces "The Odd Couple"

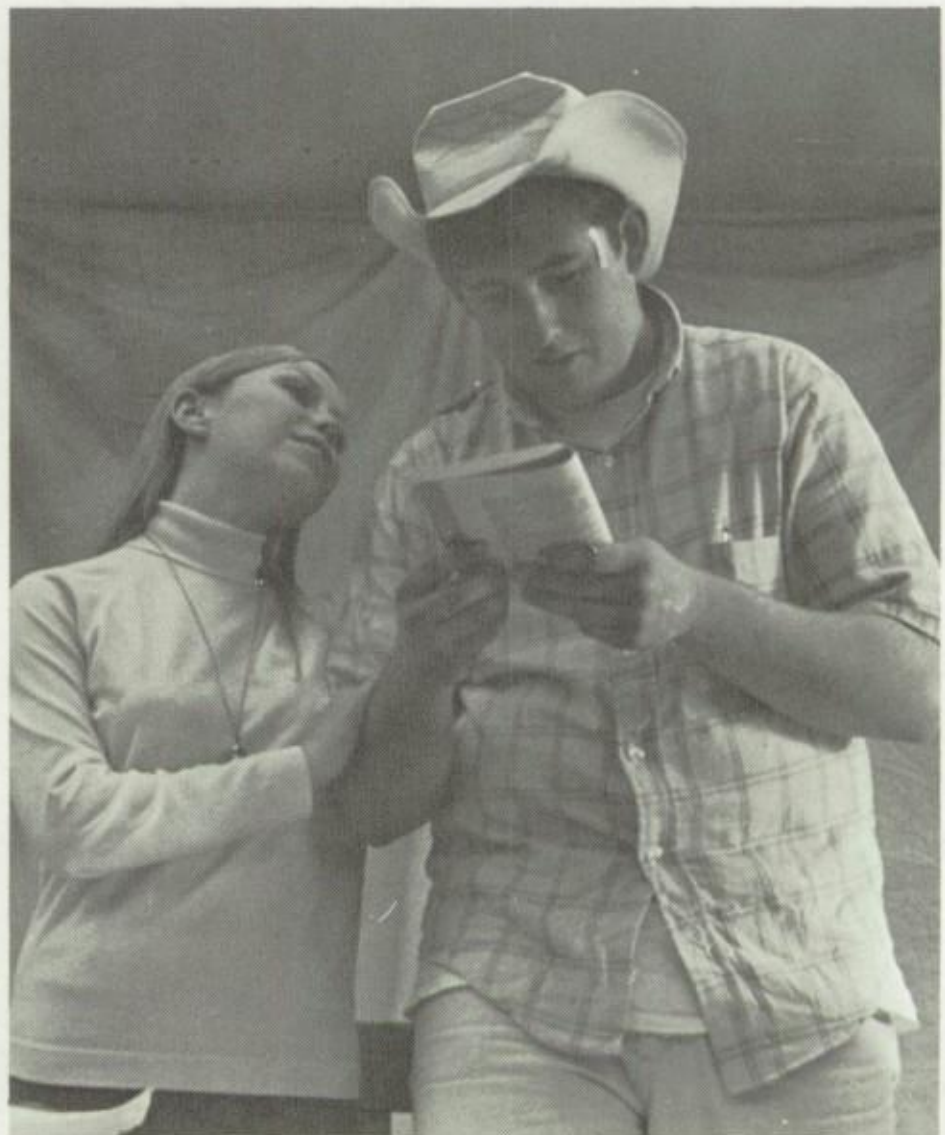

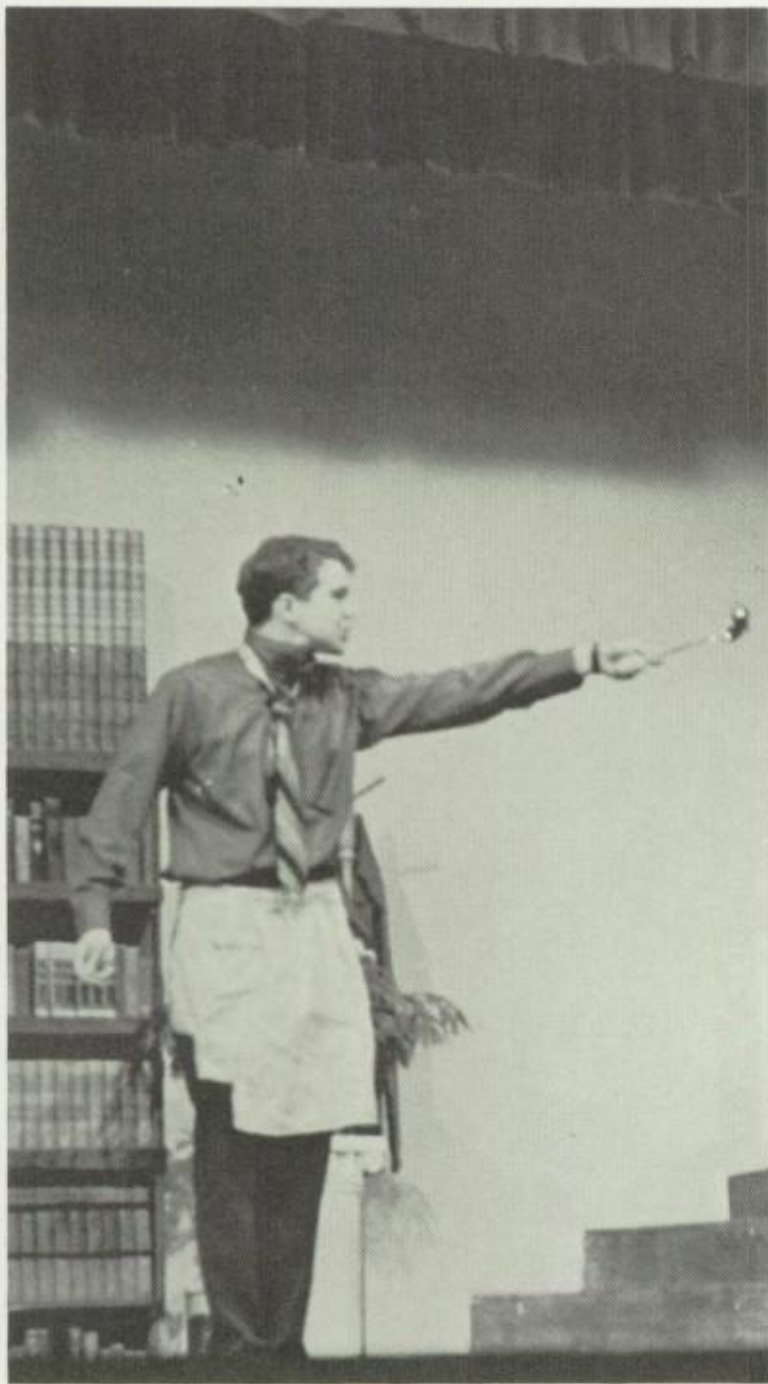

"The Odd Couple" was the successful production of the class of '70 for the annual Senior Play. Roles were filled by a series of auditions in late October. Seniors had priority to roles, remaining cast positions were filled by underclassmen. The stars, Steve Scheliga and Rick Manly were decided upon.

Playing on the nights of January 16, 17, and 18, the cast averaged a nightly audience of approximately four hundred. The project's profit went for what has been the senior-class project for a number of years. The senior patio, off the cafeteria, had been occupied by the band because of construction on campus. Funds were gathered by the 1970 seniors to build a new patio for future classes.

With the Drama Department as a foundation, rehearsals began on the first of November. From that date, cast and crew worked after school and weekends until opening night to polish their performance. Students from beginning and advanced drama classes worked the technical and practical phases of "The Odd Couple." Many students behind the scenes were involved in lighting, set construction, makeup, and costuming.

Several plays were singled out in consideration for the project. The decision on which play to put on was made final by the senior class officers and their sponsor, Mr. Wayne Roy.

AFS, YFU Bring New Challenges

Sometimes I still ask myself if it's really a dream. Before you leave home you think of how it's going to be. How different is the reality from what I imagined! Somethings are much better; others are a little disappointing. This experience is unique: my family, my school, the people around me. To be a real member of another family is certainly the field in which AFS does a wonderful job. Lots of people are concerned about your welfare. Everyone tries to make the best out of your AFS experience.

The American school system is completely different from what I am accustomed to. This gives me the opportunity to approach problems from another viewpoint. AFS wouldn't be AFS if it weren't for the school experience.

It is great not only to learn the good side but also the bad side of things you see. Many people ask me "What is Belgium like?" Well, I would say it is a mini-USA. The only difference is that everything here is bigger, and life goes a lot faster.

I ask myself how I can thank you for the wonderful experience you have given me. The only way I can do it, I guess, is by giving other people an experience as you have given me. In the same way you understood me I'll try to make others understand the American people — their way of life and their feelings. I can only say "Thank You", but it comes from the depth of my heart.

Willie adopts American student customs.

Eija enjoys learning about American History.

Being a Youth For Understanding exchange student gives such great opportunities to contact other people! I am living with a marvelous family. They have shown me such lovely places and helped me with my school. At first I found school kind of hard, because of the language.

I have to say that I don't know which is harder — American or Finnish. You have to study for both anyway. I find that American pupils take more interest in school activities than Finnish pupils.

I know that I am learning much, making friends and spending a year that I will never forget.

Delegates To Girls', Boys' State

RUHS representatives to Sacramento this summer were mantle bearer Denise Wiczorek, and ASB president, Mike Seaman. At the Big-Little Sister Party, Denise told the incoming freshmen girls about her experiences at Girls' State.

"Girls' State gives many valuable lessons and memories. I believe the most important lesson is that of the gift of friendship. This can be expressed as follows by a fellow Girls' Stater; 'one cannot tell the precise moment when friendship is formed. As in filling a vessel drop by drop, there is at last a drop which makes it run over; as in a series of kindnesses, there is at last one which makes the heart run over.'"

Both delegates learned a practical approach to political practice and custom as it is exercised in our country.

Part of the training in action that both Denise and Mike received was running for an office in a controlled population of Boys' and Girls' Staters. Mike was elected as Supreme Court Justice and, "I was able to sit in government and became acquainted with Supreme Court Justice McComb, who has caused me to head in the direction of a law career."

Mike Seaman and Denise Wiczorek represent Redondo.

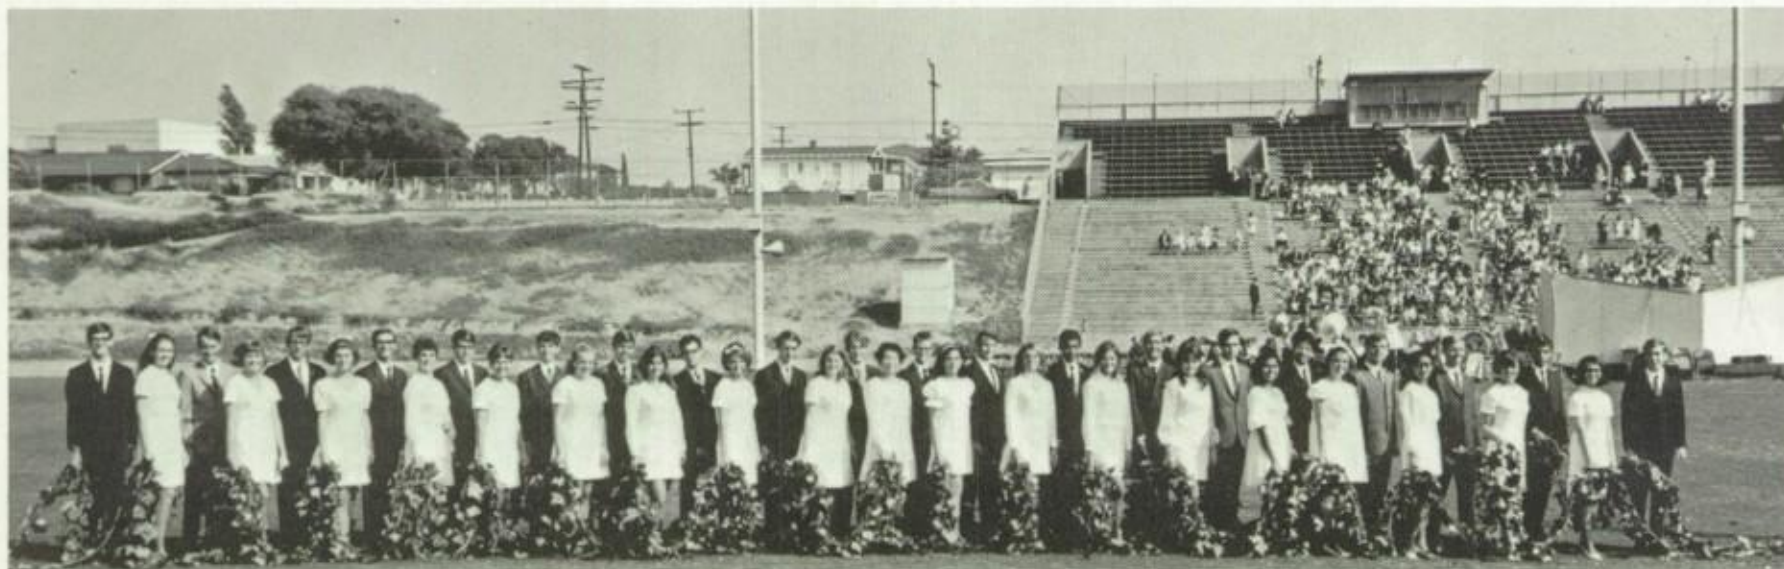

ASB President Mike Seaman was a Supreme Court Justice at Boys' State.

Active Denise Wiczorek ran for an office at Girls' State.

Leading the graduating class into Sea Hawk Bowl for the 1969 Commencement exercises was the Ivy Chain. As a tradition at Redondo, the Juniors who held the ivy were selected as the most outstanding representatives of the class of '70. Chosen on scholastic achievement and their demonstration of leadership, the forty girls and boys outlined the procession of seniors to the platform.

The organization of Ivy Chain was under the direction of Mr. James Keema. Candidates were notified by letter one week before graduation and met together several times before Commencement for instruction. Actual rehearsal for the ceremony took several hours because it included the construction of the ivy chain.

Honor as Grand Marshals and Honor Guard was taken by the presidents of the major organizations on campus. Juniors who were active in service were appointed ushers.

Patti Jo Phillpotts, Girls' League president, conducts an early morning Girls' League meeting.

Girls' League, as the largest club on campus, included as members every girl who attended Redondo Union High. Girls' League's purpose was to involve all the girls in school activities of their choice by providing a contact with the administration and faculty as well as with other girls.

One of Girls' League's biggest projects, the Coed Ball, May 3, 1969, began the year for the new board. This Coed Ball was handled by Nancy Burke and Her assistant, Nancy Geotz, with the cooperation of Heidi Krabacher, decoration chairman, and Joy Vik, financial advisor. Other projects supported by Girls' League included Red and White Week, the Candy Sale, and the Christmas Drive.

The executive board was presided over by President Patti Jo Phillpotts. The remainder of the board was Vice-President Amie Hall, Treasurer Mardi Honaker, Recording Secretary Margaret Bradford, Corresponding Secretary Leta Yu, Sgt. At Arms Suzanne Hall, Senior Class Consultant Bonnie Waller, Junior Class Consultant Jeri Andrews, and Sophomore Class Consultant Margie Schumaker.

Boys' League Holds Assemblies

Boys' League is an organization whose membership was the male enrollment of Redondo Union High School. Though by comparison Boys' League is less active than other clubs, the boys on campus were provided a balanced outlet in the athletic program offered by the school. By custom, the first dance of the year was sponsored by Boys' League as an after game dance. This project was scheduled for one of the first home games of the season. Using the facilities in the new gym, the boys enjoyed demonstrations and films on karate, and various sports.

In addition to the elected officers of the Associated Student Body, presidents of classes '70-'73 and of the major clubs served on the council in a concentrated effort to recognize, reveal and rectify many difficulties and problems. One of their primary concerns was the student-teacher relationship. A faculty committee worked with the students to manage the successful coordination of the three major divisions in a student's life: school, job and home activity. In reviewing actual situations, the Student Council learned that achieving the end of a complete education involved much more than books. It has been the experience of Mr. Russell Striff, administration representative, that the Council teaches not only our foreign exchange students, such as Willy Goderis from Belgium, but our own participating students as well. Among the practical functions that Student Council included in its responsibilities were the financing of the newspaper. Without the backing of ASB funds, extracurricular activities such as dances and football and basketball games could not be extended to the students at Redondo.

The Key Club was organized to instill a sense of loyalty to school, community, and nation through service. Sponsored by the local branch of the Kiwanis, the Key Club members participated in the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast and two members attended the weekly Kiwanis luncheon. As a club for upperclassmen, the Key Club operated a hot-dog and coke concession at the football games and rotated noon duty among the members. Projects also supported by the Key Club included the annual Cancer Drive and the Donkey Basketball Game. Funds for the projects were raised on Slave Day when club members were auctioned. A portion of the club funds was donated to the new boys' gym.

The campus sponsors were Mr. Raymond Bates and Mr. Robert Carne. The club officers were Tom Box, President; Gary Daigh, Vice President; Pat McKinney, Secretary; Dave Matte, Treasurer; and Rob Ulrich, Historian.

Semper Comites Supports Events

President Rita Coffin conducting a meeting.

Semper Comites is the service club for senior-junior girls who serve as ushers at plays, assist at school dinners, and annually sponsor the Red and White Dance. Semper Comites girls could be identified by the pink uniforms worn every Thursday. Under the direction of Miss Leigh Campbell, potential members were interviewed by the outgoing senior members. For the first time, membership was not based on the point system.

The officers were Rita Coffin, President; Sandy Harrell, Vice President; Janice Scott, Secretary; Denise Wieczorek, Treasurer; and Irene Verkaaik, Historian.

Members include the following girls: Jeri Andrews, Susan Armstrong, Anita Atwater, Margaret Bradford, Beverly Brooks, Nancy Burke, Trudy Bush, Rita Coffin, Debbie Davis, Susan Day, Janene Fitzgerald, Marlene Fitzgerald, Linda Fox, Kathy Frenger, Amie Hall, Joyce Hanks, Sandy Harrell, Terry Hauck, Nancy Headrick, and Judy Holland. Also in the club are Mardi Honaker, Sandy Howland, Donna Hurt, Susan Kincheloe, Donna Marsh, Kathy Niemann, Pam Renke, Joann Ross, Olympia Salmas, Rhonda Schemel, Janice Scott, Shannon Shea, Sherry Thornton, Barbara Towler, Irene Verkaaik, Joy Vik, Nancy Webster, Denise Wieczorek, and Leta Yu.

Wheel Club is a campus organization of sophomore and freshman boys. They participate in numerous activities in the community. With the co-operation of print shop the boys produce and sell rooster ribbons during the football season. Self-discipline is a product of their service work. Qualifications for membership included high point averages, good citizenship, and a demonstration of interest in service to R.U.H.S. Teacher recommendations were also important. Personal interviews were held as part of the qualifications.

Officers were President, Jerry Jones; Vice-President, Randy Anderson; Secretary, Steve Lambert; Treasurer, John McLaughlin; Sergeant-at-arms, Chet Zahn. Under their direction the Wheel Club helped Key Club purchase a scoreboard for the new boys' gym, took a trip to Disneyland, sponsored the Father-Son banquet in the spring, and took educational field trips.

Spirit Fills Cognotai Service

Cognotai, a service club for sophomore and freshman girls, work for the school and community. For Christmas Cognotai went to a convalescent home and gave a party with homemade cookies and favors.

During the second semester of their freshman year with the recommendation of their teachers, girls were invited to join Cognotai. Qualifications included high grade point average, good citizenship, an interest to serve their school. The old and new members went on field trips to Disneyland, Farmers' Market, and filming of T.V. Shows.

Quill and Scroll, a national Honor Society recognizing literary achievement, had its representatives on the Redondo campus this year. This chapter, with the sponsorship of Mrs. Konnie Krislock, journalism instructor, included the major contributing members of the three publications of RUHS. "High Tide", Pilot, and "Opus" were each represented in the Quill and Scroll membership. The purpose of the club was to encourage quality writing and superior scholarship among contributors and editors on all three campus publications.

Faculty nomination, a reasonable grade point average, and a review of literary submissions during the high school career were determinants of Quill and Scroll membership. For Spring a buffet dinner was calendared as well as the selection of the group's most outstanding member. Election results were, President Mark Jarman, Vice-President Nancy Headrick, and Secretary/Treasurer Mimi Leadbetter.

PenPointers produced the only club magazine — the "Opus". This year the theme was based on the works of Friedrich Nietzsche. Original student contributions were printed, and the magazines were sold by penPointers members.

Working with Greg Karpain on the Executive Board of Penpointers were Greg Gilbert, Vice-President; Bev Brooks, Secretary; Anita Atwater, Treasurer; Terry Croft, Historian; Mimi Leadbetter, Program Co-ordinator; Sandy Kast, Social Chairman; Lee Dickason, Newsletter Editor; Jim Andrews, Production Coordinator.

PenPointers was the most popular and numerous club on campus and the only one which each year produced its own magazine.

PenPointers, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Virginia Cornwell and the leadership of President Greg Karpain, gathered an enthusiastic following. The initiation was held in November at the Los Verdes Country Club, and nearly 150 members were welcomed. Although the emphasis was placed primarily on original writings, creativity in art and music was also appreciated. Included in their projects was a trip to the theater in January.

Pep Club—Prominent With Buttons

Most of the popularity of the large Pep club was due to the frequent activities. Each Friday night the football stands were marked with the white-shirt section, made up of rooters who were Pep Club members. Besides backing up the team audibly, many of the members worked on the decorations which appeared on the field.

Students cheered wildly at football games.

Officers included Joanne Ross, Secretary; Margaret Bradford, President; Gentil Benson, Vice-President.

Madrigal participated in assemblies and represented the school in community functions. The 62 members performed early this year at the Pomona Country Fair, the Forum in Inglewood, the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion in the Music Center. On the 24th of December Madrigal sang on a program airing on channel 28. Other appearances included the annual excursion to our sister city—Ensenada, Mexico. Mr. Thomas Wilson, director, felt that Madrigal provided a musical outlet for creative expression in the student body.

Thespians and Speech Entertain

This year the Thespians again earned points by participating in as many plays as they could fit into their schedules. Centering upon the fifth period class of Mr. Bennett, the group produced several scenes from famous plays for lunchtime theatre goers, as well as a complete one act play by A.A. Milne— "The Man in the Bowler Hat." Participation in the Senior Play made several new people eligible for Thespians. The requirements were one hundred hours or more of some type of theatre work, such as actual acting, lights, set construction, and painting. As compensation for those many hours of hard work, each culminated in a cast party. Toward the end of the school year the Thespian Banquet was held to initiate new members into the club and to award the trophies for Best Actor, Best Actress, Best Technical, and Most Improved.

The Speech Club, sponsored by Mr. John Benett, was busy this year with numerous speech tournaments. Competition was keen for all areas of Novice, Junior Varsity, and Varsity contests, with Redondo winning many honors. These included a trophy for excellent group ratings arrived at by superior individual honors medals, Certificates of Superiority, and Certificates of Excellence. The areas participated in were Original Evnts, Interpretation, and Debate. Whether competitors won or not the purpose of the club was to communicate better, especially before groups of people.

Palateers was a club for students who were interested in activities oriented toward diverse fields of art. Under the sponsorship of Caesar Hernandez, the club members participated in a field trip to the Art Centre College of Art in Los Angeles and toured local art shows during the Christmas season. These were undertaken to promote interest and art appreciation.

Helping to arrange the many trips that the club took was President Claire Geniac and Vice President Greg Turner. Presiding with them were Jo-Ann Guerrero as Secretary and Kathy Buchanan as Treasurer. Members included the following: Jeannie Boemler, Idella Bransford, Kathy Buchanan, Annette Corrao, Rob Corrao, Jan Childs, Dorian Fortney, Claire Geniac, Gwen Goolsby, Jo-Ann Guerrero, Cheryl Hoffman, Cecile Jersin, Kevin Karnes, and Candy Kelly. Others were: Sue Martinek, Barbara Meek, Debbie Mitsuhashi, Dana Roberts, Valerie SESCO, Jackie Shriver, Curtis Smith, Phillip Smith, Claire Stephens, Rocky Stroup, Sue Turrentine, Tom Van De Braak, Cathy Viramontes, Brooks Waldhart, Cathy Williams, and Victoria Zahn.

Clubs Learn Through Experience

At various times during the school day, strange hissings and pops were heard from the direction of the electronics room where the Radio Club held its meetings. The purpose was to learn the Morse code and to get an amateur ham license. On another wave length the members were attempting to contact various persons and personalities in Moscow, Peking, Hong-Kong, and some of the multitude of UFO's that swept the sky. All of the merriment was under the organization of Mr. Friebel and President Charles Shuey. Presiding with Charles Shuey was the Vice President Michael Troxel and Treasurer-Secretary Nicholas Flynn. Members included Richard Chaple, Nicholas Flynn, Pat Lorenz, Dave Parmenter, Chuck Shuey, Greg Trautman, and Michael Troxel.

Organized to promote interest and understanding of Latin and the cultural heritage of Greece and Rome, the Latin Club produced an orgy — complete with Greek and Italian dinners. In the midst of the revelry was Mrs. Joan Beasley, sponsor, who spoke of the necessity for the Comites Romanorum to enjoy modern and cultural and artistic events in the light of our classical heritage. One such modern and artistic event was an evening listening to Simon and Garfunkel.

Also on the agenda was the "Ides of March" banquet held annually to welcome new members. Unfortunately, the stately Mrs. Beasley was unable to partake in this auspicious occasion. She had to move to Denver. Bereaved at the loss of their beloved leaders, the Comites Romanorum roused themselves long enough to hail Caesar at the Junior Classical League Convention which was held in March. National interests in the classical gifts of Greece and Rome were discussed — albeit not in that singularly classical language — Latin.

French Club and Honor Society

One of the smallest clubs on campus, the French National Honor Society was composed originally of six students in their fourth year of French. Shortly before Christmas, initiation was held at the Chalet de France for students who had achieved "A's" and "B's" during three years of studying French. The officers were David Lambert, President; Greg Wood, Vice-President; Jim Lockerby, Treasurer; and Barbara Towler, Secretary.

Le Club Francais promoted the culture of France in Redondo. Some of their activities included the annual French Club Banquet of gourmet dishes in the Faculty Cafeteria on November 10th. A Christmas party was held in French tradition. A picnic was the social event scheduled for the Spring. Together with several other campus groups the French Club took a half day to view the Van Gogh exhibit at the Los Angeles County Museum. Mrs. Bonnie Hart, who is an unusually active club sponsor, organized the activities with the officers. Lee Dickason was Madame President; Marjorie Brooks, Vice-President; Esther Gadiano, Secretary; James Lockerby, Treasurer; and Michelle Seaton and Linda Chouinard, Publicity Managers.

Cervantes-Spanish Club — Ole!

Spanish Club did much toward promoting the Spanish culture and language among the students at RUHS. With Mr. Mario Ortiz, members had an opportunity to practice Spanish and learn more about the culture of Spanish speaking countries while engaging in worthwhile activities. Among these worthwhile activities were the annual banquet in November and viewing Spanish movies in December. Spanish club also made a trip to Olvera Street. March was the month that the club took a trip to one of the Spanish missions that dot the Southern California coastline. Planning these activities for the members were President, Jill Souder; Vice President, Martha Duer; Secretary, Robin Corbeille; Treasurer, Gladys Mejia.

Cervantes claimed the distinction of holding in its membership rolls the outstanding students of Redondo Union High in Spanish language. Primarily an honorary organization, Cervantes concentrated on extending and expanding the knowledge of the already proficient students with the aim of furthering their educational careers in the culture as well as the language. Spanish aficionados elected Marvel Griep as their president, Bob Hamilton as Vice President, Jeri Andrews as Secretary, and Joann Ross as Treasurer. Since October was the date of their first activity, Cervantes members scheduled their trip to a Spanish movie in December along with a visit to Olvera Street. Cervantes sponsor Dr. Ethel Smith took her sabbatical during the spring semester of 1970. At her departure Cervantes was desolved as a separate entity and joined the Spanish club. Included this year were two honorary members, Rogelio Otero and Victor Silva, Jr.

Science Club — C.I.T.E. Learn

Science Club under the sponsorship of Mr. David Leach offered a wide variety of opportunities. Among their many field trips were a trip to the P.V. Tide Pools, a jaunt to Griffith Park, and an excursion to the U.C.L.A. Medical Center. Members of the Club had the chance to hear lectures on such different subjects as Taxidermy and Oceanography. The bi-monthly meetings were held on Tuesdays.

Jim Lockerby, President; Nancy Goetz, Vice-President; Dale Mitchell, Secretary; Pat Perkins, Treasurer; David Parmenter, Sergeant-at-arms; and Martin Ventura, Publicity Chairman were the officers.

Career Interest Training Experience encouraged development of interest in community participation. Mrs. Gayle Sells and Mrs. Maureen Linder served as C.I.T.E. sponsors. The members received practical career training as well as inspiration and information about opportunities. They were hostesses at the counseling department's college night when representatives from colleges came to speak to junior and senior girls and their parents. Members also met with representatives from Jomel Modeling and toured the occupational center.

Officers were Susan Kincheloe, President; Pam Renke, Vice-President; Susan Hall, Secretary; and Mardi Honaker, Historian and Publicity Chairman.

Ski Club-Red Cross Symbiotic

During the year the Red Cross Club served in hospitals over the holidays, worked in the Children's Center, worked in the Thrift Shops, and made and packaged items for the local Red Cross headquarters. Miss Edna Jones was the group's sponsor; the president was Kathy Tomlin. Members included Bev Brooks, Heidi Burkard, Glenda Goble, Gisele Harris, Pamela Miller, Robin Phelps, Lynne Ryba, Carol Starkey, Kathy Tomlin, Olympia Salmas, Cindy Walker and Linda McCormick.

Ski Club sponsor Mr. Jerry Goddard and President Rob Stevens.

At the first meeting the Ski Club totaled 150 members. Any interested student was encouraged to join during the year. Although the club had as many as 200 members at one time, only one officer was elected. Rob Stevens, President, assisted Mr. Jerry Goddard, the sponsor in arranging the many trips scheduled for the winter and spring. This was undoubtedly one of the most popular clubs on the R.U.H.S. campus.

Magazine Drive Builds Funds

Students and teachers of the business education department are busy from the beginning of the school year. The annual magazine subscription sale kicks off in September and sends business students searching for customers among their neighbors and relatives.

Each June the top graduating senior in business education, with plans to go on to college, is awarded the Charles N. Sutphen Memorial Scholarship. Named in honor of our late principal, the Sutphen award was begun in 1968. For outstanding business students not continuing their formal education, cash awards are presented during senior awards night ceremonies.

These awards are all made possible through the hard work of the student-magazine salesmen. But they have their rewards, too. Disneyland, with all expenses paid, is the prize to students selling more than $40 in magazines. Also because of the magazine sales the business department scholarship fund has been able to contribute $1,500 to the landscaping project around the new boys' gym.

DECA And FTA Plan Careers

DECA is the only youth organization operating through the public school system to attract young people to careers in marketing and distribution. It offers public information, awards and recognition, leadership conferences, leadership training, scholarship loans, and program development.

President Phil Purdue worked with the sponsor Mr. Dean Lehman to coordinate the club activities. Also presiding were Vice President Suzan Martinek and Secretary-Treasurer Cheryl Hoffman. Members included the following: Tom Bishop, Dorian Fortney, Cheryl Hoffman, Linda Hein, Suzan Martinek, Phil Purdue, Bob Pierce, James Rogo, Sandra Scott, and Mike Troxel.

Would YOU like to be able to stand before a class and expound upon matters of national interests — for instance, the art of reading? Many students who had the same thought joined the Future Teachers Association. In becoming involved the students also aided teachers in various schools either as teacher aides or tutors. Students from RUHS sacrificed one class period a week to help children at Beryl, Fullerton, Hillcrest, and Patterson elementary schools. These students taught reading, conducted orchestras, and assisted wherever possible. Monthly, they gathered at a breakfast meeting to report on the progress made. Assisting Mrs. Pam Blachly was President Sandy Harrell. Presiding with Sandy were Vice President Bobbi Adame, Executive VP Al LaCerta, Secretary Sandy Howland, Treasurer Jan Reese, and Historian Judy Carlson.

Clubs Offer Time to Interests

Bowling club members were: K.Allison, P.Beer, S.Bonham, S.Brecht, D.Burley, J.Buxton, J.Cloudman, D.Collins, C.Davidson, R.Duncan, D.Fiscus, S.Fritz, T. Candy Strippers practice medical skills.

Candy Strippers were a voluntary corps of student hospital workers. Local hospitals receive the time of Redondo girls dressed in red and white striped uniforms. Campus sponsor Nurse Lowry organized the student work shifts. Candy Strippers dealt with people of all ages; their duties were to help the sick. Members were: Dianne Donovan, Lianne Fuhr, Kathy Gast, Rhonda Gilliam, Rhonda Goode, Ann Gregory, Diane Hopper, Marilee Martin, Chris Pope, Suzanne Quigley, Shirley Ricketts, Valerie SESCO, Karen Smith, and Diana Wilson.

Chess Club was organized with sponsor Mr. Al Dickhart to cultivate devotion and patience in RUHS enthusiasts. Daily, at both snack and lunch, members met to apply their powers of concentration to complete their mastery of the game. Besides tackling their own board problems, Redondo chess players studied and imitated classic moves of the masters followed international tournament developments.

Officers were: John Jones, President; David Burley, Vice President; Marcos Curry, Secretary. Members included: Bill Budge, Mike Cavanaugh, Bob Harris, Henry Marshall, John O'Brien, O. Scott, Mike Storm.

Archery Club re-organized for its second year on the Redondo campus. Weekly RUHS students improved their skill with the bow. Miss Bea McCollum supervised the club members before the targets on the girls' field. Thursday after school was the time set aside by the archery enthusiasts to pursue their practice. Basic skills were developed—stance, aim, pull, release, and hold. From there, they progressed to the difficult techniques of estimating the flight of the trajectory and judging the distance and bow weight.

Honor Skilled Girls in R Club

Girls' "R" Club had an emphasis on dedication to the ideals of good sportsmanship which provided the unity of the organization. Members were selected for the club on the basis of their standing with the Girls' Athletic Association.

Members were: Bobbi Adame, Vice President; Susan Armstrong; Jeannie Boemler; Judy Davis; Carol Ehlers; Terri Hauck; Judy Holland; Sandy Howland; Susan Kincheloe; Donna Marsh, Credit Manager; Marilee Martin, Historian; Terri McAndress; Charla Morris; Bobbie Nemecek; Sheryl Patrick; Debbie Place, Credit Recorder; Zona Rich; Debbie Ruth; Olympia Salmas, President; Gayle Tsutsumi, Treasurer; Judy Tsutsumi; Tracie Yost; Laura Zahn; Victoria Zahn, Secretary.

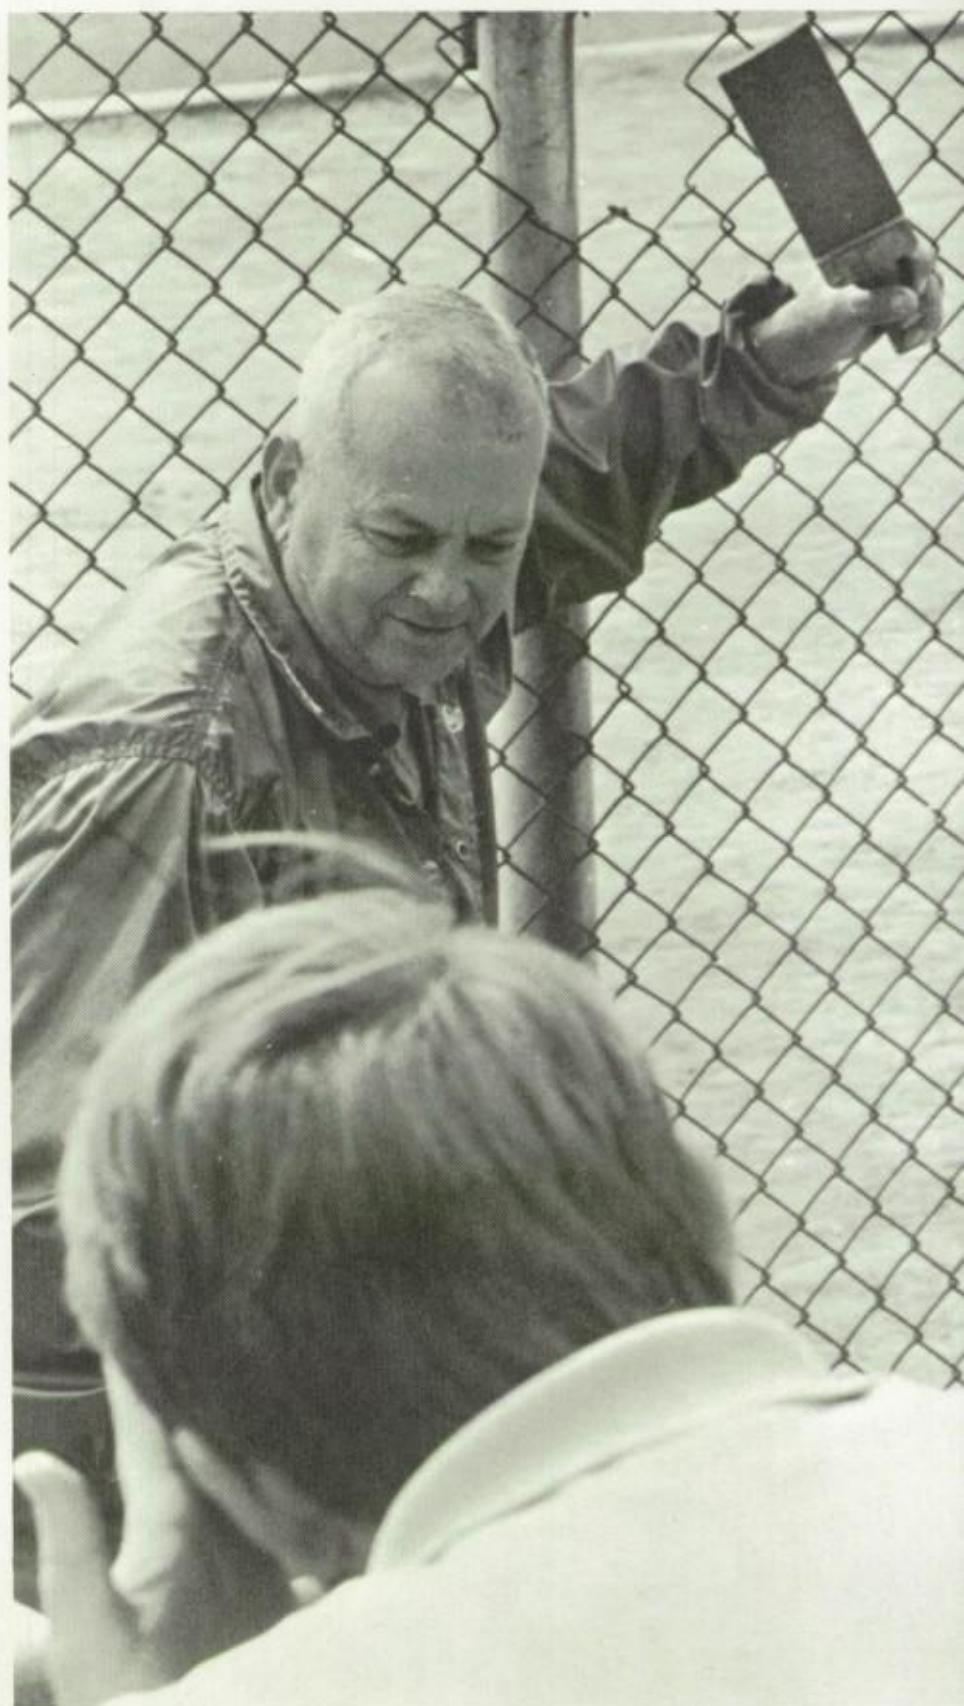

Boys' "R" Club for Lettermen

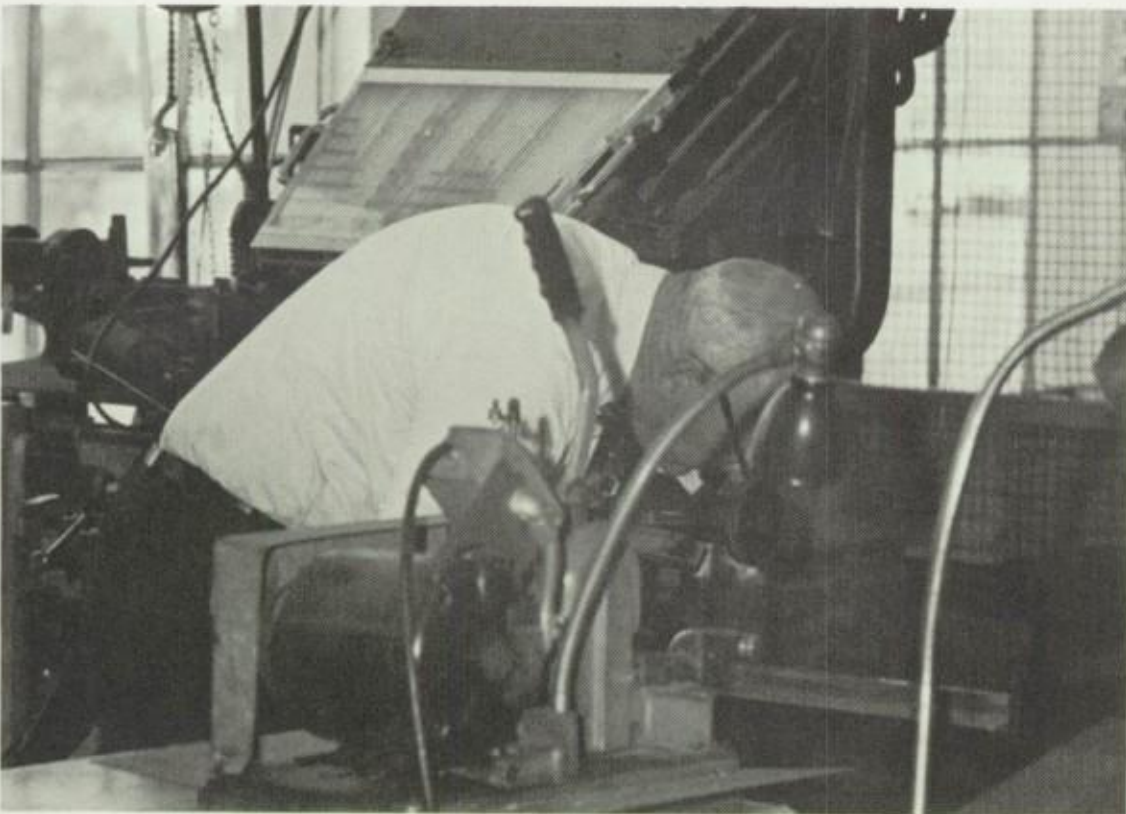

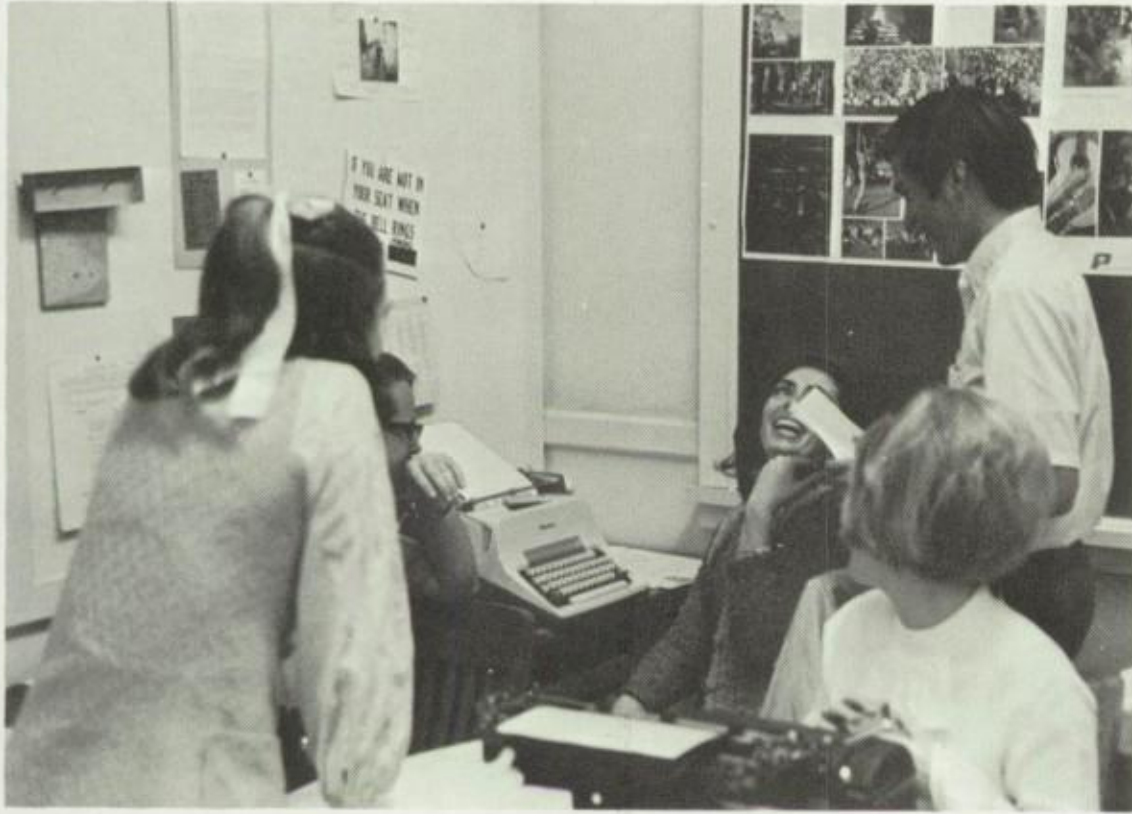

One of the most active service clubs on campus was the Boys' "R" Club sponsored by Mr. Harry Dinnel, Mr. Jon Fowler and Mr. Dan Karavas. Under the leadership of President Rob Ulrich, the "R" Club toiled during the basketball season at a concession stand and used the money they earned to pay for a new weight machine for the boys' gym. They also sponsored a game with the L.A. Rams early in the Spring. In addition the Boys' "R" Club helped the school administration and served the community in general.

Officers were the following: Rob Ulrich, President; Bob McCandless, Vice President; Pat Platt, Sergeant-at-Arms; Randy Daniels, Secretary; and Dennis Forel, Treasurer. On the membership rolls were: Bill Aichinger, Curt Alton, Randy Anderson, Tony Apollo, Morris Barks, Mike Bishop, Dean Boston, Tom Box, Jerry Bustos, Terry Chapman, Bob Cowan, Randy Daniels, Barry DeBaun, Chris Diaz, Mike Dorey, Marty Duffield, Tom Fargher, Ken Fladrich, Larry Giddens, Jim Gonzales, Lindsey Guerro, Jim Hanson, Doug Harkins, Dave Havrilchak, Steve Hayashi, Mark Jarman, Jerry Jones, Fred Kaplan, Bruce Knight, Steve Kulin, Dave Lambert, Harold Marshall, Bob Martin, Dave Matte, Terry Matte, Bob McCandless, Pat McKinney, Dave Moody, Jerry Myatt, Rober Otero, Pat Perkins, Pat Platt, Frans Reyerse, Ralph Royds, Mark Rubke, Tom Russell, Wayne Schumaker, Mike Seaman, Charles Shaw, Mike Sheerin, Mike Siddons, Darrell Smith, Ken Sousa, Mike Stevens, Jeff Stockton, Steve Summer, Rob Ulrich, Fred Valencia, Dan Vargas and Kent Wagner.

CURRICULUM

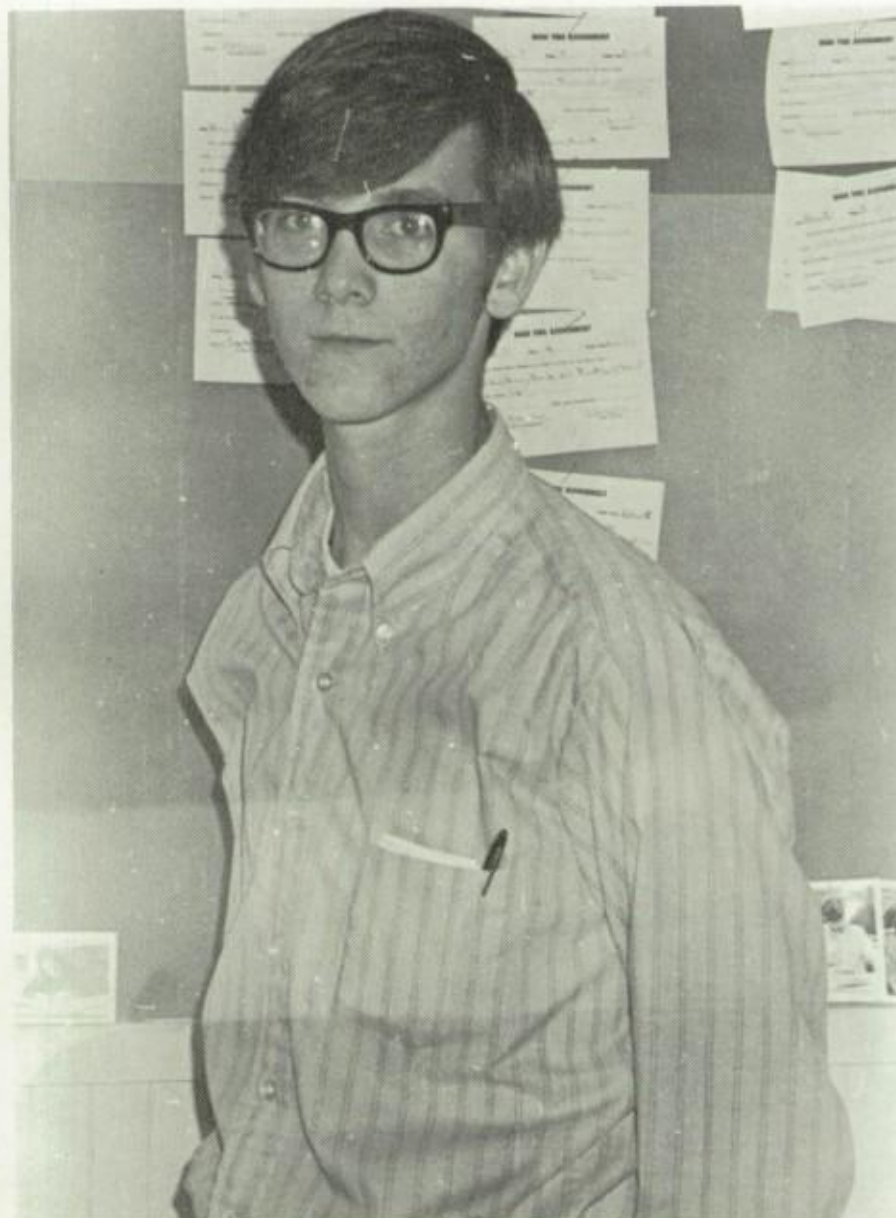

High Tide Records And Reports

The staff ponders assignments.

Adviser Konnie Krislock corrects copy.

Ed Ely assumes job as editor.

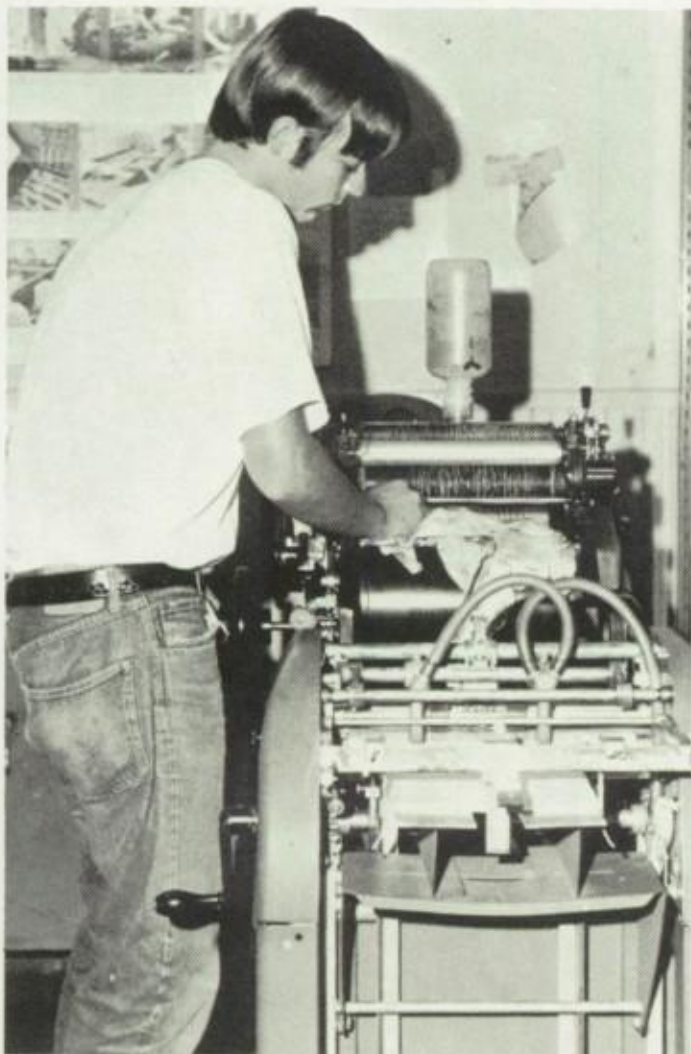

The school newspaper had a dual purpose — to inform the general student body and to teach the student staff the techniques of constructing a newspaper.

The staff was selected by the sponsor, Mrs. Konnie Krislock, and the editorial board of the previous year.

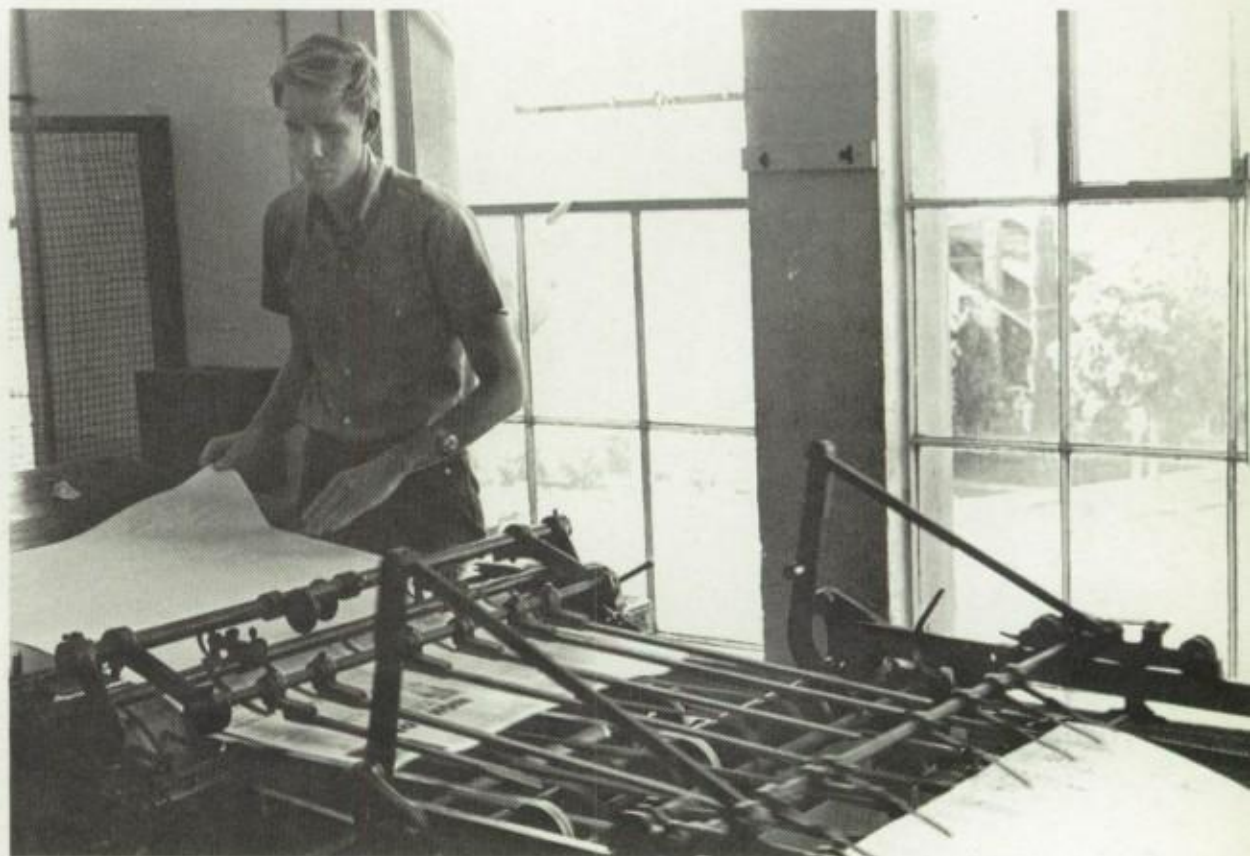

This year's "High Tide" was subjected to many changes. New departments such as Public Relations and Makeup Editors were tried. Editor-in-chief, Ed Ely was satisfied with these additions to the staff.

The student body began to take a more active interest as their opinions were noted in polls and editorials. Feature stories and interviews provided a human interest note which increased reader attention. Members of the staff were given opportunity to state their stands and attitudes in editorials and reviews. The overall policy of the paper had grown more relaxed allowing more students to know what they wanted to know and to say what they wanted to say.

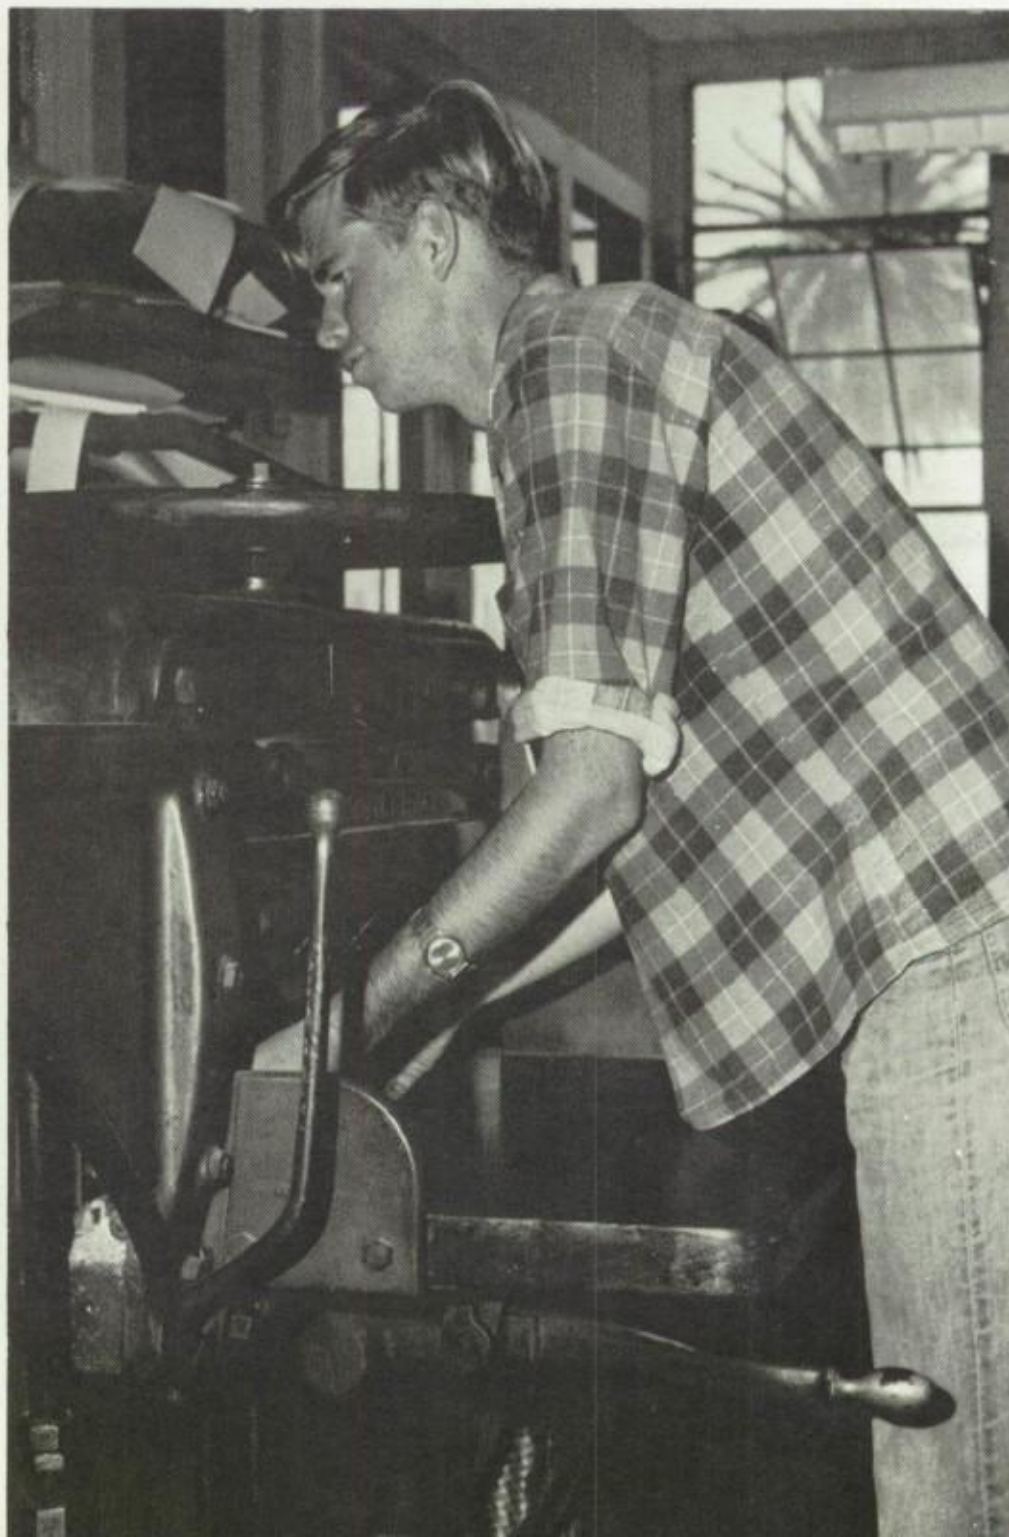

Printers Aid School Activities

Mike Clark runs the press.

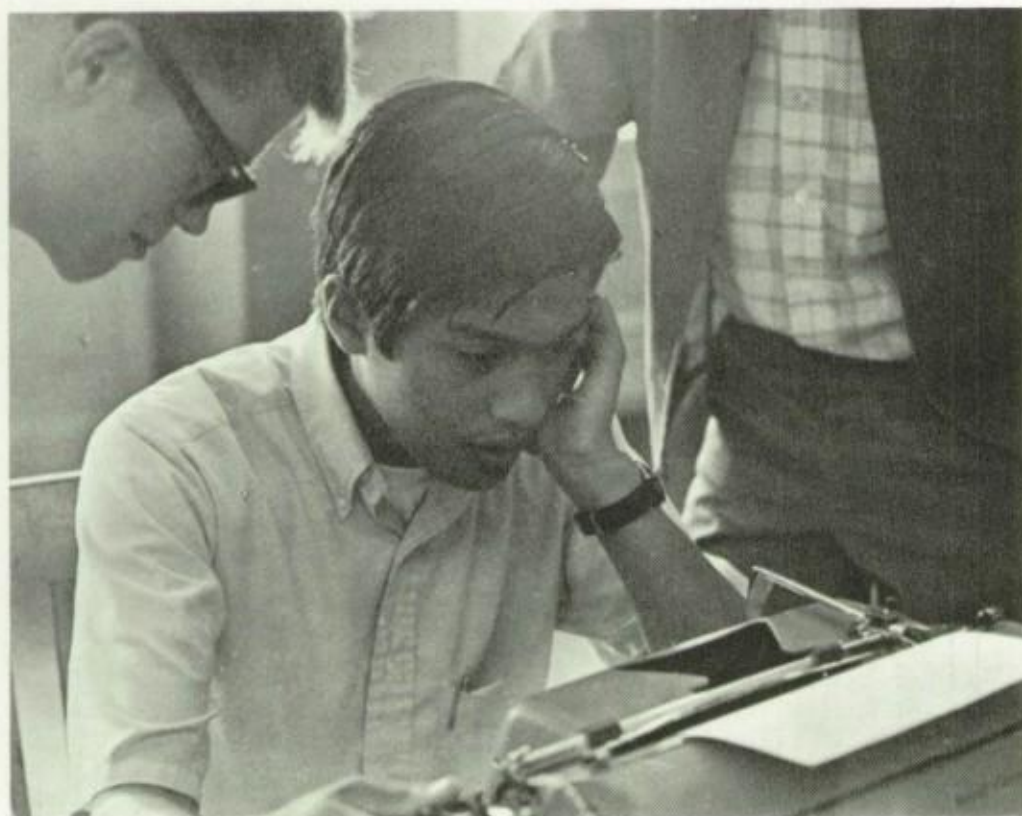

Print shop supplied all the printed invitations, programs, receipts, tickets, and announcements for Redondo High School. Each week they published the "High Tide" as well. They also included work for the District Office and large amounts of extra time for clubs and "Opus". All RUHS activities availed themselves of their unselfish giving of both time and effort.

Throughout his career in the Redondo print shop Mr. Tom Robertson has been unique in the capable preparation of students for the printers' trade. The PILOT owed many thanks to him for his help on their ad section. His retirement this year will leave a void in the professional personnel in this vital area of vocational training.

Those in print shop learned to take special precautions while working. Hot lead and the slamming of heavy presses were among the hazards associated with the printing profession, which the students had to overcome. Each year the print shop awards special honors to two students who have demonstrated the greatest ability. Last year Steve Jones and Ernest Carrick received the Print Shop awards.

Pilot Unfolds Events Of Year

George Conde and Greg Wood ponder sports copy.

This year for the first time the PILOT enjoyed the luxury of its own room. The staff, known as "The Wild Bunch" among any unfortunates in the Science Building during sixth period, was headed by George Conde and his two assistants Kathy Bentley and Margaret Bradford. Their goal was to expose RUHS student life as it really is.

Another change this year was the "organization and order" which the motley crew brought to the pandemonium of publishing the PILOT. The addition of new positions lessened the burden on any one editor and created one entirely new section. By this the staff hoped to reflect both the academic and the sports sides of Redondo and to exhibit some of the creative talent of its students.

However, even though novelty and action were the themes of this year's efforts, tradition found its place too. Old and new buildings became subjects for photography, and personnel changes received editorial comment. The annual banquet at which the staff honors itself and its efforts with orgiastic revelry took place in the spring after the last publication date was met.

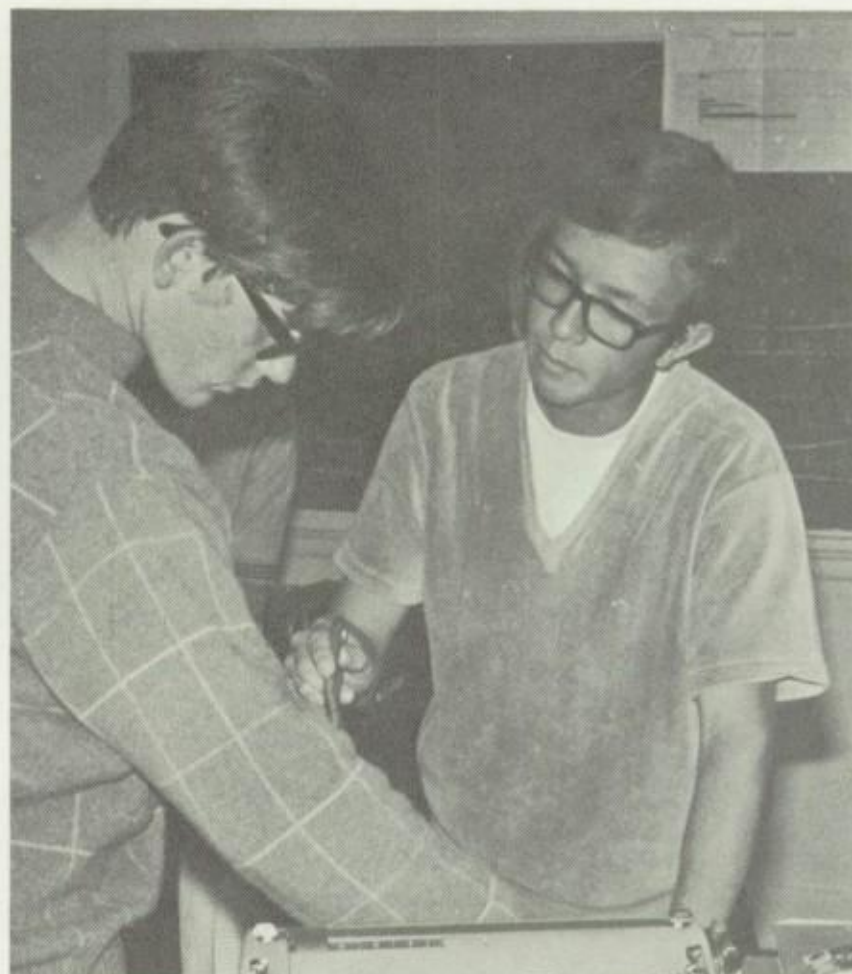

PILOT recorded for all time the year 1969-70 and its place in the cycles of RUHS history.

Sciences Modernize Curriculum

Redondo students labored again this year over the principles, theories, practices and books of science. Seniors predominated in Physics, headed by Mr. Calvin Beagle, and Physiology, taught by Mr. David Leach. Juniors controlled the population in Chemistry but were controlled by Mr. James T. Ball. A composite of juniors and sophomores filled out Biology, with instructors David Leach and George Galanes. Mr. Beagle taught the sophomore-freshman course of Physical Science. Mr. Earl Church expounded to freshmen almost exclusively on the subject of General Science. Mr. Wilbur Reiersen taught the upperclassmen the fundamentals of photography.

Industrial Arts Teach Skills

Redondo's extensive industrial arts program provided students with valuable experience in printing, woodwork, auto mechanics, electronics, mechanical drawing, and machining. This training serves as a background for the vocational student who enters industry upon graduation. The department offered VEA courses in some shops to take advantage of the Vocational Education Act which provided federal funds to the school.

Mr. Richard Andersen taught wood shop and cabinetmaking; auto shop was instructed by Mr. Ernest Burton; teaching electronics was Mr. Marvin Friebe. Irving Glushenko, John Minech and Jack Williams instructed the mechanical drawing classes; Mr. Wilbur Carter taught wood shop; Mr. Mike Mercadante was the auto shop teacher; and Mr. Tom Robertson was print shop instructor as well as serving as department chairman.

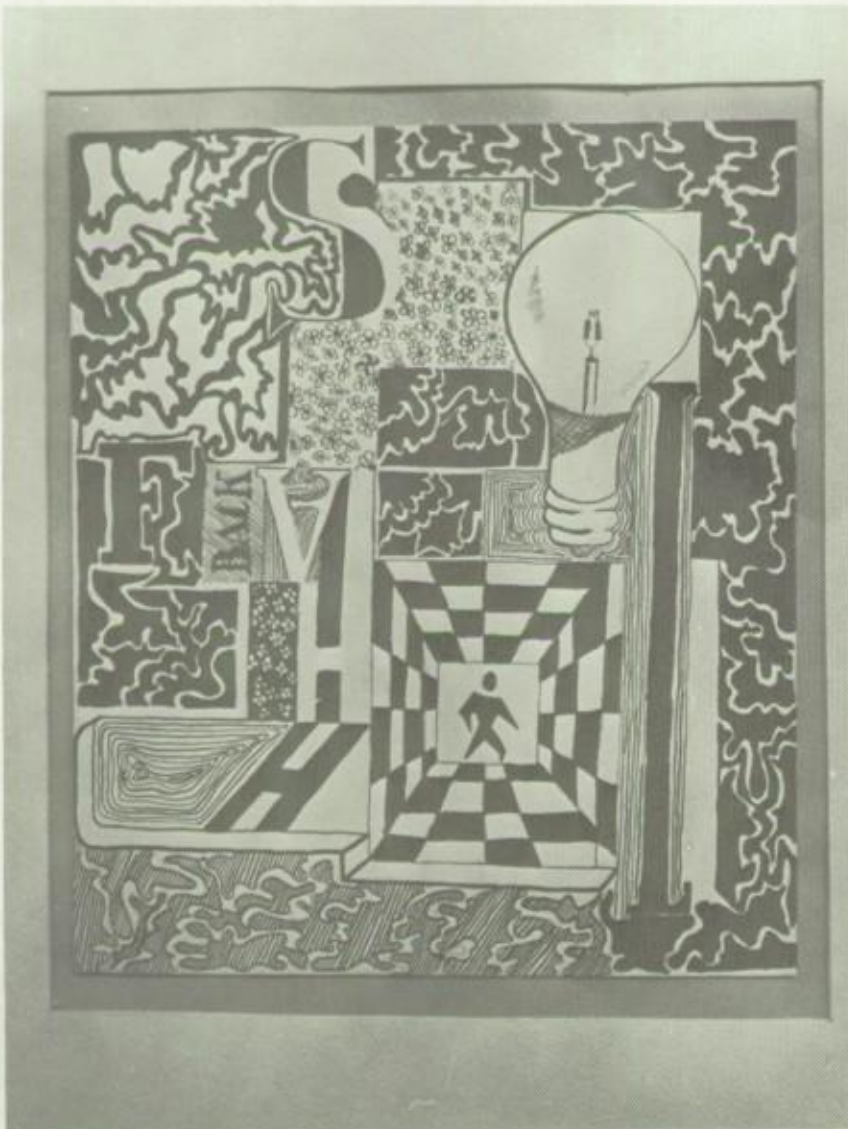

Creativity a Must in Fine Arts

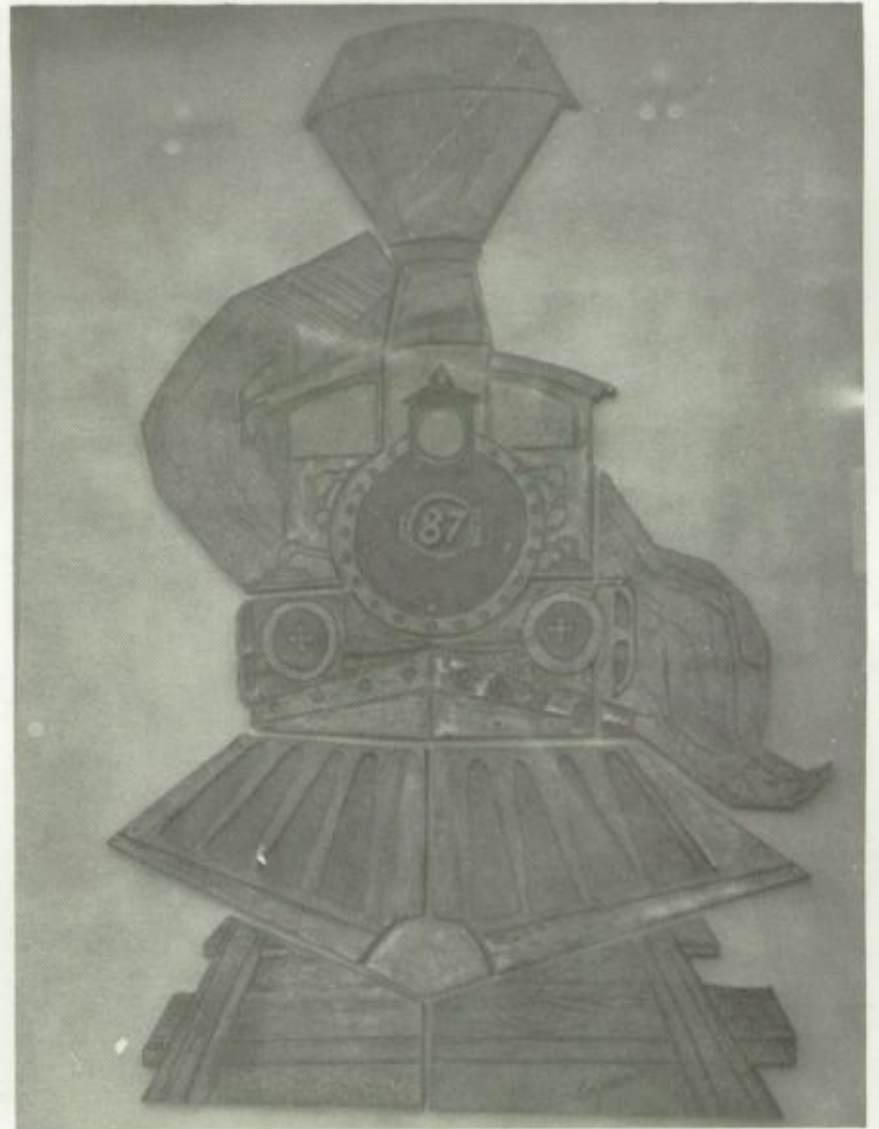

Art pupils work in clay.

Within the structure of the Fine Arts department was a program which allowed the enclosure of many subdivisions in the field of art. Divided among the four instructors, students were provided with a variegated selection from which to choose. To realize and utilize the present on-campus talent, Mr. Jack McClain as department chairman considered courses in ceramics and freehand as vital. Commercial art and design classes were available to those considering a future career in advertising and related fields. Most of the students who enter the art curriculum extend their studies in this area throughout their high school career. Annually several students submit entries to several art exhibits in Los Angeles and adjacent communities. The art department was responsible for the mosaic in the attendance hall and a similar project will be undertaken by the art students to decorate the inside of the auditorium to be completed by 1971.

Some of the students also enter local contests and are awarded scholarships and cash prizes, results of their efforts.

Speech and Drama Combat Shyness

Of the divisions of RUHS, the drama department alone is self-sustaining. A drama festival during which a full-length play is produced in the spring supplemented the funds that enabled the department to continue performances. During productions students had an opportunity to work together as a unit and recognize the individualism, creativity, and spirit needed to capture an audience. The effort taught them to appreciate the intensity and endurance needed to perform publicly.

Included in the new building projects at Redondo were plans for a new expanded drama wing. Anticipated were a small theatre and an additional room in which to store costumes and stage props. Mr. John Bennett as department head was enthusiastic about plans to continue the production of skits and one-acts for the entertainment of the student body. This year, with the co-operation of Thespians and the advanced drama classes, various scenes from famous plays were presented during both lunches once a week at no charge to the student audience.

As Mr. Bennett taught both drama and speech, the courses coincided in regard to stage techniques and public speaking. On several occasions students from speech, as well as drama, participated in tournaments and local competitions to the mutual satisfaction of both the audience and the speakers.

Honor Students Negotiate Ideas

Unique to the English department, under the chairmanship of Mr. James Van Wagoner, was an Honors program on three levels that was designed to increase the capabilities of the accelerated English student. Beginning in the sophomore year, students were under the direction of Mrs. Edna Rappaport who conducted a study of the humanities with special interest in the literary progression from Homer to Don Quixote. The students then advanced to Mrs. Virginia Cornwell who reviewed the major trends in American literature from Hawthorne to Melville with the Junior Honors Class. Seniors studying under Mr. James Van Wagoner concentrated on poetry, the short story, essays, drama, and the novel. Although the third period Honors classes have been successful, new courses are planned which will offer the student a greater variety from which to choose. The semester classes will be specialized and will include such divisions as oriental philosophy, American literature, modern literature, Black literature, and reading appreciation.

New this year was Dr. Richard Hoyme's Senior Composition and Research. As a college preparatory class, its major aim was to initiate the high school student to proper techniques of composition and original research.

Home Ec Offers Practical Program

Home Economics offered a practical course of studies to students at Redondo. The program, evolved by department head, Mrs. Burnelle Stannard took in the several major aspects of home life. Girls on each class level were trained in the necessary arts of cooking and sewing. For each division there were primary and advanced classes.

VEA (Vocational Education Act) sewing, Family Living, and crafts were some of the classes for girls who took a special interest in homemaking.

FACULTY

Administration Sets Standards

An expanded building program this year marked the progressive policy of the South Bay High School District Board. The new Boy's Gym was completed this fall, and construction began on the new Social Sciences Building and Auditorium. Innovative educational programs were encouraged. Meetings were held with the parents and students to arrive at an equitable policy on dress and curriculum. The retirement of Dr. Earl Brown and Mr. Russell Striff left a definite void in the administration of the South Bay and or R.U.H.S.

Mr. Charles Morris headed the five Vice-Principals who make the policies and encourage the progress of education. Support of faculty action and creativity was marked and appreciated by all members of the staff. Establishing dress codes, enforcement of regulations, guidance of student government, public relations with the parents, counseling supervision, distribution of audio-visual equipment to faculty and students and establishment of a school calendar for the extra-curricular activities were a few of the duties of the Vice-Principals. Student Government and teaching equipment were organized and guided by Mr. Striff for many years. During his thirty years in the district he also served as a coach at Redondo.

Placement of each student in classes which will benefit him or her as a person in achieving goals in further education or a vocation after high school graduation is the goal of counseling. Redondo's counseling staff spent many hours adjusting programs to accommodate changing desires and interests.

A Master's Degree in counseling is required for the position of Counselor. Each student has one counselor during his four years of high school at Redondo. This year Mrs. Moore and Mr. Klein advised the freshmen; Mr. Bates and Miss Warren, the Sophomores; Mrs. Duley and Mr. Klein, the Juniors; and Miss Warren and Mr. Arwine, the Seniors. Mr. Robert Carne, Vice-Principal, was also head of counselors.

Educational progress and change to meet the needs of twentieth-century adult life were the key motivations behind the policies and innovations of the R.U.H.S. faculty in curriculum planning this year. With the addition of new buildings for Social Sciences and the addition of new buildings for Social Sciences and dramatic arts there were high hopes for the creation of new classes and implementation of creative teaching techniques for next year. Faculty members attended conferences to increase their teaching effectiveness and worked on professional presentations like that presented at Parent Open House by Mr. Ted Misenheimer. Many faculty members served as sponsors and advisors for student groups and devoted many hours to these activities.

Mr. Calvin Beagle and Mr. Herbert Irvin retired this year. Dr. Ethyl Smith and Mr. Ted Misenheimer studied on sabbatical leaves during the spring semester. These absences were felt by both students and faculty members.

A great deal of credit belongs to the custodial staff for the comfort and cleanliness of the RUHS campus. Quietly and thoroughly, the custodial staff kept the campus and classrooms neat and clean in spite of student action to the contrary. Under the direction of Mr. Hanna, head custodian, these people aided the students in organizing dances, rallies, and assemblies.

Equally dedicated to the welfare of the RUHS students were the cafeteria workers. Working two shifts daily, the cafeteria staff dispensed cheerful smiles along with the nutritious food. They assisted also at special evening events such as the Student-Faculty Potluck Dinner and Sports Awards Banquets in both spring and fall. To both the custodial and cafeteria staff, the RUHS students owe special thanks.

Seniors Anticipate Graduation

dent, Greg Karpain; Sergeant-at-Arms, Cecilia Adame.

Traditionally the seniors of RUHS are relied upon to learn the qualities of leadership. To create for the school a climate of student awareness in education and influence the attitudes of the classes to come, it was the responsibility of the Class of 1970.

Among the many leaders in the senior class was President Mike Sheerin. His executive board included Vice President Greg Karpain, Treasurer Joy Vik, Secretary Ruth Heinmiller, and Sergeant-at-Arms Cecilia Adame. Student body and club leadership indicated the total involvement of the members of the Class of '70. Elected officers of the Associated Student Body were seniors, as well as, the editors and many of the staff of the OPUS, HIGHTIDE, and PILOT.

In conjunction with the Drama Department under the direction of Mr. Bennett, the senior play, "The Odd Couple" was presented for three nights. In honor of the class of '70, the juniors presented the Junior-Senior Prom. Presentation of the Varsity Basketball Sweetheart was the highlight of the semi-formal affair.

Under the supervision of Mr. Wayne Roy, Mr. Jerry Goddard, and other Senior teachers, the Class of '70 enjoyed their Excursion Day on Catalina.

Spirit Is Created By Junior Class

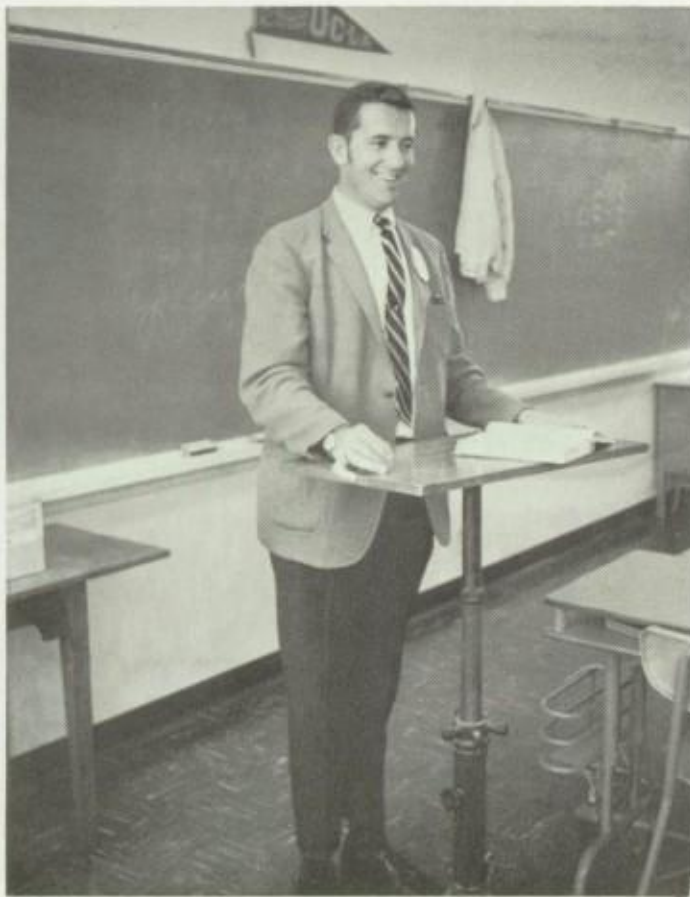

Under the direction of Mr. James Keema, the class of 1971 supported many activities. The first was the Candy Apples Sale in the fall. This netted profits which were used later on the Junior-Senior Prom. The Junior-Senior Prom was held in the spring to coincide with Valentine's Day to honor the seniors. This year's juniors had the first class ring with a stone. The golden emblem of RUHS was placed upon a rippled red background.

Many juniors assumed positions of importance in student government, activities and sports. Jeri Andrews and Mardi Honaker were members of the Varsity Pep Squad; Lynnsey Guerrero, Randy Daniels, Ralph Royds, Dean Boston, Jim Gonzales, Steve Gray, Chuck Shaw, Ken Sousa, Mark Rubke, and Bob Herrera were among the outstanding Junior athletes; Peter Brewer participated in track and cross-country and also achieved the status of AFS finalist; Nancy Goetz served as CSF vice-president and AFS student; and Janene Fitzgerald was chosen Pacific Shores Queen.

Junior officers included Steve Gray, President; Vicki Bertrand, Vice-President; Jan Mitchler, Secretary; Trudy Bush, Treasurer; and Louie La Rocca, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Sophs Show Diversified Interests

Sophomore Class, the youngest organized class, has found itself relatively inactive. Since project priority goes according to seniority, the Class of '72 had little relegated to its sphere of activities. Its only money-making project was a Bake Sale at the end of the year. The profits were donated to the school.

Every year Sophomores find themselves in a paradoxical situation. Although retrieved from the obscurity of Freshman year, they are not yet ready to accept the responsibilities of Junior obligations. Sophomore athletes achieved status on Cee, Bee, and Varsity teams, and first-quarter honor roll contained more Sophomore names than those of any other class. Activities attracted many. Cognatai, Penpointers, clubs, Girls' League Committees, Dress Board, Drill Team, and publications' staffs opened channels of expression to those interested in serving the school.

Officers were: Carl Dreizler, President; Linda Kaplan, Vice-President; Michelle Palmer, Treasurer; John Claybaugh, Sergeant-at-Arms. Sponsors were Mr. Raymond Bates and Mr. Richard Klein.

This year was one of the best years for freshmen at Redondo. First, they had the new boys' gym. Also, freshmen could look forward to having their Senior Play and assemblies in the auditorium which was under construction this winter.

Freshmen have the chance to join several clubs such as the Girls' League Decoration Committee. All language clubs took Freshmen as long as they had interest in those languages. "B" and "C" intramural sports were a challenge to Freshmen athletes. The Class of '73 contained a wide range of individuals who achieved the status of Honor Roll members, club members, and team members. Gary Kircmarck achieved the unprecedented roll of member of the Varsity Basketball Team.

Freshmen girls strove to accumulate activity points for application to Cognatai in the Spring. Likewise, Freshmen boys worked to gain points for Wheel Club. Five Freshmen gained class officer positions in the fall. They were Jim Schumaker, President; Joe Snyder, Effie Anastassiou, Lucy Cowan, and Kris Hellinga.

Losses Haunt Gridiron Effort

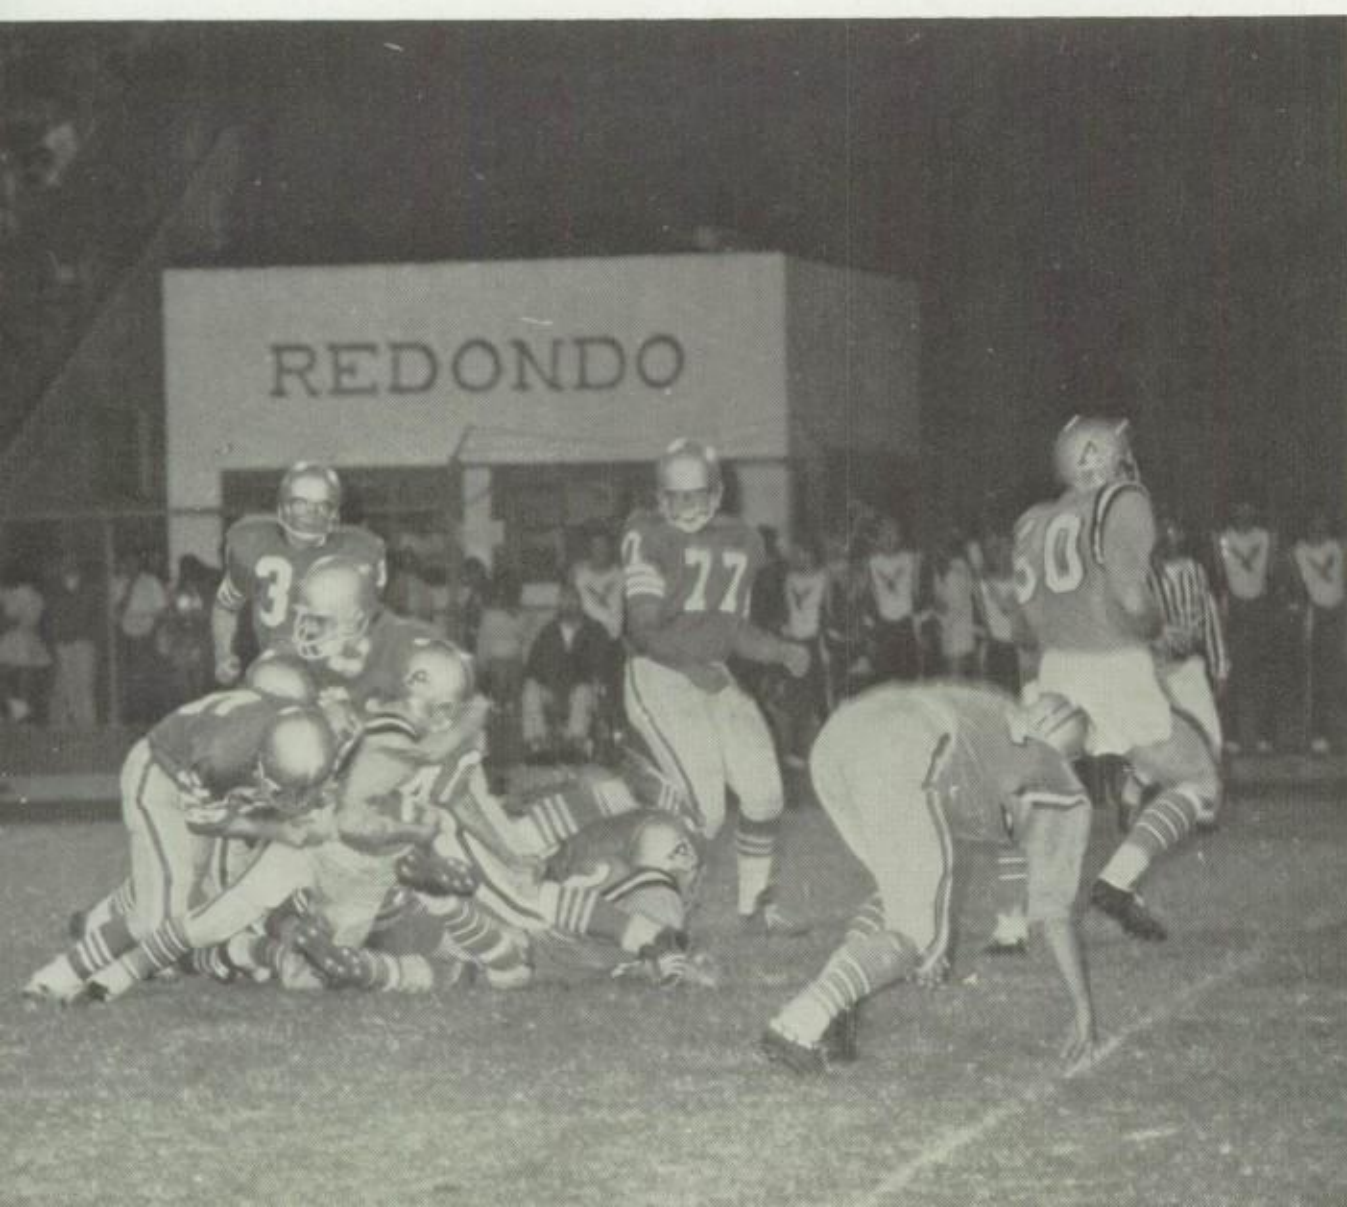

The Redondo Varsity suffered its third straight losing season. The Sea Hawks compiled a disappointing 0-9 record, the worst finish since Redondo began playing football in 1916.

Hopes were high when Redondo traveled to Torrance to play the Tartars, but the Sea Hawks succumbed 21-0. In the following game, Redondo was destroyed by the highly regarded Culver City team, 26-6.

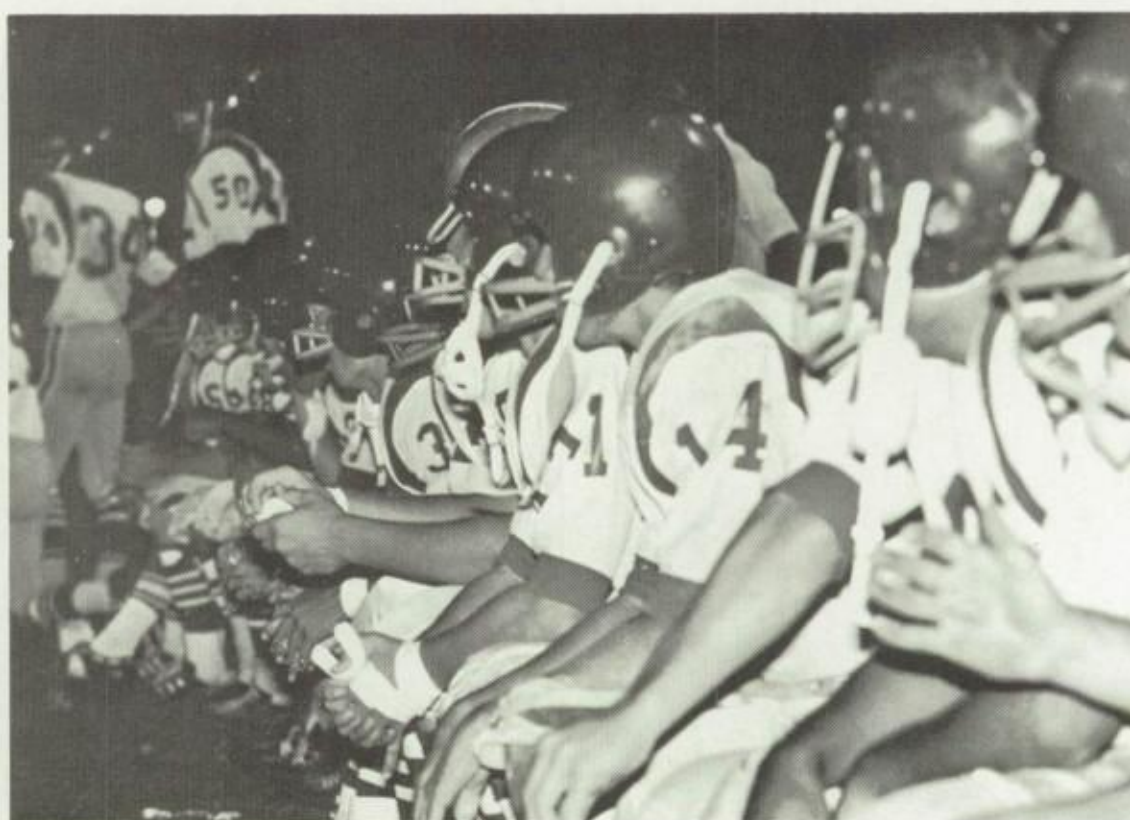

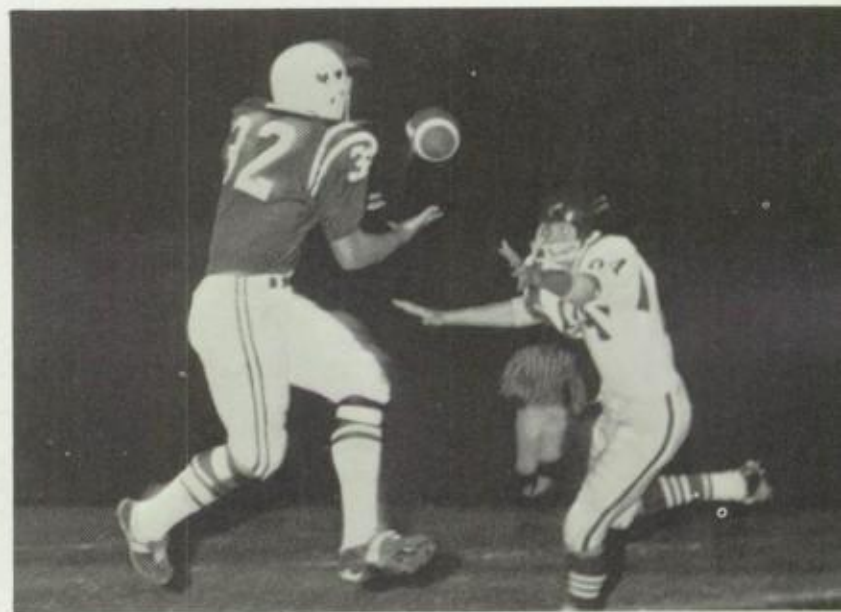

The regular league season began with a home game with Inglewood. After a tight first half, the Sentinels pulled away with a 19-7 victory. Redondo was defeated by rival Mira Costa 16-6 the following week.

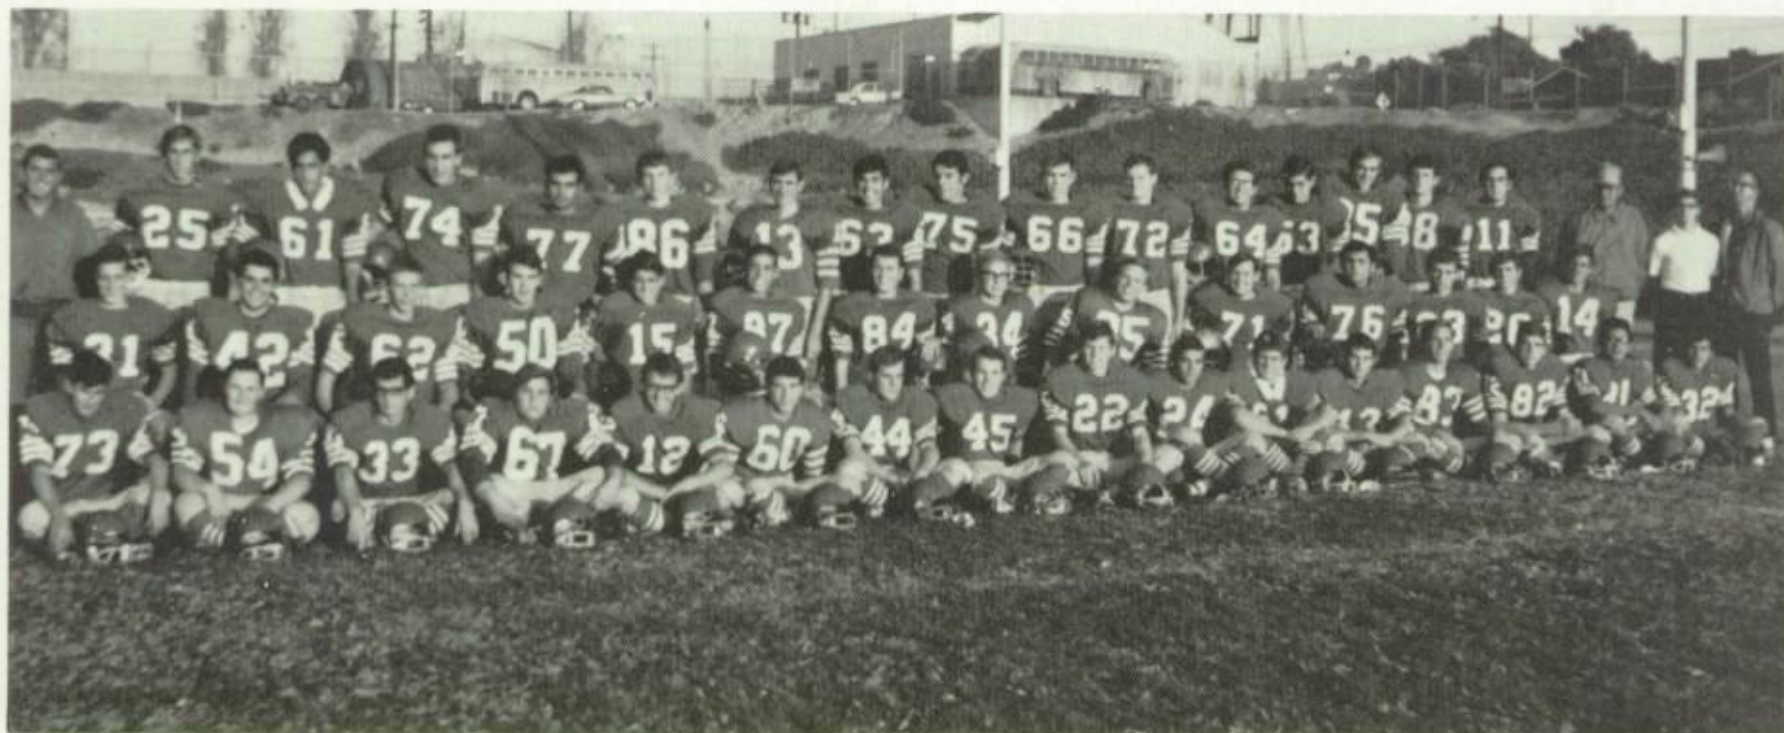

Undefeated Santa Monica came down seeking revenge of the 7-0 upset they suffered last season at the hands of the Hawks. They were very successful as they humiliated the Sea Hawks 55-0. Hawthorne was next in line for a victory over the hapless Redondo team. The Cougars won, 27-6. The West High Warriors were also victorious as they crushed the Varsity team, 40-0. Up until this point, Redondo could not generate any kind of substantial offensive assault. But, against North Torrance, the Sea Hawks were able to move the ball consistently, and produced three touchdowns. A punt return by Marty Duffield, a fumble recovery in the end zone, and a quarterback sneak by Jim Gonzales accounted for Redondo's TD's. The defense, however, was unable to contain the Saxon offense and consequently Redondo lost its eighth game, 47-20. The season closed with a loss to South, 42-0.

Bees And Cees Win Four Games

The Bees, under new coach Bill Réed, emerged with three big victories. After losing the first game against Torrance, the freshman-studded team destroyed Culver City, 27-0. It went on to defeat Inglewood, 39-14. Redondo then lost to Mira Costa and was humiliated by Santa Monica, 65-6. The Bees bounced back and slipped by Hawthorne, 20-13. They concluded with losses to West, North, and South. Throughout the season, the team was piloted by quarterback John Hartnell, and led by the scoring of Gilbert Zamarripa and Bill Cornett.

The Cee team, composed of smaller players, struggled through the year winning only one game. The win came over arch-rival Mira Costa. The final score was 14-8. The younger Seahawks were led by quarterback Gary Wingate, and running backs, Tom James and Jim Schumaker.

Great Effort Shown By Harriers

The Harriers looked promising at the start of the year, and were able to improve upon last year's sixth place finish. The Varsity was led by Mike Stevens, Ken Sousa, and Harold Marshall, who consistently placed well. Running strong races for the Junior Varsity were Dave Holladay and Mike Davis. Leading the ophomore division were Randy Goodro and Steve Cata. Tony Garnier turned in some outstanding frosh performances. Mike Stevens received the Varsity MVP; Ken Sousa, the Junior MVP; and Harold Marshall and Tony Garnier earned the sophomore and frosh MVP's, respectively.

Hawks Have Poor Season

As the Pilot deadline came before the end of water polo season, a complete set of scores was not available. Jim Ball's first season as water polo coach was marked by many disappointments. The season's highlight came with the Santa Monica game as Redondo fought to a near victory. Outstanding performance was provided by Mark Rubke

Despite high hopes at the beginning of the season, Redondo's Varsity wrestling team lost all of its matches. This was attributed mainly to injuries. Varsity wrestlers Ken Fladrich, Bill Lankford, and team captain Pat McKinney were all out; McKinney for most of the season. Redondo had five contestants in CIF competition: Randy Daniel, Jerry Myatt, Pat Platt, Ralph Royds, and Tom Spanswick. Daniel and Platt each fought to a close one-point loss, but both were subsequently eliminated.

Varsity Finishes in Fifth Place

After a slow start, the Redondo Varsity finally jelled as a unit to win six Bay League contests. Preseason action saw the Sea Hawks defeat El Segundo in the initial game and Culver City. Redondo lost the balance of the games including a contest with Morningside which was televised on the KNBC "Game of the Week."

The regular season began with a loss to West Torrance on the Warrior's home court. In the following game, Mira Costa's Mustangs destroyed the host Sea Hawks by a 50-point margin. The North Torrance Saxons visited the Redondo gym and departed with a decisive 30 point victory. The Spartans of South Torrance narrowly beat the Hawks on two last second freethrows. Redondo received its first win of the season by defeating Inglewood. Hawthorne provided fans with one of the most exciting contests of the season. Redondo was able to overcome an eight point deficit with two minutes remaining and to force the game into overtime where the Varsity finally beat the Cougars. A loss to Santa Monica completed the first round of play.

The second round pairings saw Redondo start its comeback. The Hawks lost a close 60-56 contest to West. In what was termed the "upset of the season," Redondo beat rival Mira Costa in a ball-control game. In the next game, the Sea Hawks were unable to hold on to a ten-point halftime lead and lost to the highly regarded North High Saxons despite excellent defensive play on the part of Redondo. The Hawks got back on the winning track and defeated South. Redondo then beat Inglewood, 65-53, and Hawthorne, 59-51. In an attempt to knock Santa Monica out of a CIF berth, Redondo's late rally fell short and Samo barely won, 70-66.

The Junior Varsity team was the picture of frustration. Its 1-13 league record does not truly reflect the quality of the team. After winning the opening game against West Torrance, Coach Jon Fowler's J.V.'s lost the remaining contests of the season. Most of the losses were by three and four point margins. Gary Colquhoun was the leading scorer on the team before being moved up to the Varsity ranks. Jerry Jones, Terry Matte, and John Hartnell spearheaded the Sea Hawk attack. The J.V.'s were unfortunate in that they beat many teams from the floor only to be edged out at the freethrow line.

Coach Harry Dinnel's Bee Basketball team won nine games this season while dropping only five to finish in third place in the Bay League. The squad began league action by beating West Torrance in the opening game. The Bee's swept the two-game series with rival Mira Costa by winning the first game by one point on a last-second shot by Tim Meyers and beating the Mustangs, 68-62 on a 26 point outburst by Steve Gray. The season was highlighted by a victory over North and was closed with a loss to Santa Monica.

The young Cee Basketball squad proved to be the best in the area. Its 12-2 league record earned the team the Bay League Championship. The team's 16-3 overall record includes a nine-game winning streak which saw the Hawks beat every team in the league. Marring the Cee's record were upsets by Inglewood, South Torrance, and Morningside. The team, however, avenged these losses at later meetings between the teams. Coach Harry Dinnel's squad was paced by the consistent scoring of Greg Crow, Tim Hickerson, and Brian Cox.

Thinclads Start Strong

The 1970 track season began with a somewhat damp win over Rolling Hills, 74-40. Even though they ran in the rain, many excellent times were logged. Lynnsey Guerrero tied the 120 high hurdles in 16.1 seconds, but slipped and fell in the low hurdles. Danny Fye cleared 5'6" off of wet grass. Richard Carlisle duplicated that feat with several misses and had to settle for third place. Jim Rogo took a mushy first in the 220 in 25.6 Hawthorne crushed an expectant Sea Hawk team, 77-41. Jim Bernard made a fine performance with a high jump of 6'0". Ken Souza ran two miles in 9:38, his lifetime best. Guerrero won the high hurdles in 16.0 and took two thirds in the lows and long jump. Redondo picked up its second win at Miraleste. There was no real contest as the Sea Hawks destroyed Miraleste, 91-26.

Tennis Has Great Prospects

As the tennis season had not started when the PILOT went to press, no scores were available. Returning racquetmen Pete Salcedo, Tom Russell, Greg Karpain, and Lee Watrin, among others, gave rise to great aspirations as to the future of the team.

Girls Show Traditional Effort

The Girls' Swim Team, coached by Miss Mary Lou Fronk, had a disappointing season. In spite of grueling daily workouts and the traditional Redondo 150% effort, the lady Sea Hawks fell in defeat time after time. The first loss was taken at the hands of Inglewood. This was shortly followed by a humiliating 11-84 defeat at Palos Verdes. On the heels of P.V. came the loss at Rolling Hills. Then the schedule was replayed, with tragic duplications of the first time around. The last of these, the final meet of the season, was held at Redondo. With the roar of the fans ringing in their ears, the Sea Hawks gave their all. The Rolling Hills team was just too strong, though, and squeaked by with a narrow 48-39 victory.

Participating members were Joanie Cahn — backstroke; Cindy Cleveland — numerous events; Debbie DeBaun — breaststroke, freestyle; Toni Gardner — diving; Marla Garrett — breaststroke; Debbie Greco — breaststroke, freestyle; Amie Hall — breaststroke; Susan Haskins — freestyle; Sandy Kast — freestyle; Anna Lavayan — breaststroke, butterfly; Claire Maier — freestyle, backstroke; Barbara McBride — diving; Gail Neblett — breaststroke; Elaine Nelson — breaststroke, butterfly; Jackie Pettit — numerous events; Dana Roberts — diving, butterfly; Robin Rubke — numerous events; Michelle Seaton — butterfly; Laurie Telfer — backstroke; Linda Whitehead — backstroke.

Good Sportsmanship Is GAA Goal

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is "to foster a want of play for play's sake, to promote good sportsmanship, and to promote school spirit." G.A.A. achieves this end by sponsoring several play days, an after-game dance, a sports night, a G.A.A. carnival, an Awards Tea, and a luncheon. During the football season, the girls managed the concession stand.

Numbering ninety-one strong, G.A.A. is the largest body of female athletes on campus. At the helm is Miss Lila Farr.

The Redondo High Swimming team, under the new leadership of Coach Eakins, had one of the best records of any of the teams on campus. Among their impressive games, were wins over Bishop Montgomery (91-4), Leuzinger (92-3), Hart (64-31), Santa Monica (57-38), and Hawthorne (66-29).

In our increasing complexity,
We achieve mounting level upon level

"The old order changeth, yielding place to new . . .
I have lived my life . . .
I am going a long way
With these thou seest . . .
To the island-valley of Avilon;
Where falls not hail, or rain, or any snow.
Not ever wind blows loudly; but it lies
Deep meadow'd, happy, fair with orchard lawns
And bowery hollows crown'd with summer sea,
Where I will heal me of my grievous wound."

Candlelight and Roses Set Mood for Coed Ball

After an absence of six years, the Coed Ball returned to Redondo and was held in the Boy's Gym on May 2. The theme, "Candlelight and Roses", was followed and carried through with brilliant red and soft pink colors. Lattice work, mammoth candles, pink roses, and a champagne fountain were among the major distinctive features done by the decoration committee, headed by Mrs. Yost and Kathy Crampton. Highlights of the evening program were the court procession of twenty-four senior couples and the coronation of the King and Queen. The music was provided by the "Crescendos", a seventeen-piece band which has played professionally in Southern California and Nevada. Coed-Ball Chairman, Nancy Goetz, coordinated the entertainment, decorations, and refreshments. With their enthusiastic support, the sponsors: Mrs. L'Cena Rice; Mrs. Jane Neely; Mrs. Dorothy Duley; Mrs. Dorothy Yost; and Mrs. Rice's secretary, Mrs. Lois Marshall, helped make this year's Coed Ball an immense success.

Music was provided by The Crescendos.

Climaxing the evening's events was the coronation of the 1970 King and Queen who were from the Royal Court. The Royal Couple, Joy Vik and Wayne Schumacher, was chosen by the Junior and Senior classes one week previous to the announcement. Last year's King and Queen, Alan Hurt and Cindy Shank, were present to hand down the traditional red velvet capes to their successors and the First and Second Princesses and Princes.

Climaxing the evening's events was the coronation of the 1970 King and Queen who were from the Royal Court. The Royal Couple, Joy Vik and Wayne Schumacher, was chosen by the Junior and Senior classes one week previous to the announcement. Last year's King and Queen, Alan Hurt and Cindy Shank, were present to hand down the traditional red velvet capes to their successors and the First and Second Princesses and Princes.

GAA Carnival Blacks Out

In keeping with tradition, the GAA Carnival was held in the girls' gym under the watchful eye of Miss Lila Farr, sponsor of the Girls' Athletic Association. With the aid of several black-outs, lasting one to two minutes, students had the opportunity to smash confetti eggs upon the heads of their comrades. With the co-operation of several voluntary sheriffs, the students and faculty were placed in jail under a multitude of charges ranging from jaywalking to burglary. Most club attractions were booths offering various products for sale. As a project in which all campus clubs could participate, the GAA Carnival represented one of the last major events of the school year.

Michelle -
You're really a sweet and marvellous person.
I'm so happy for you and Mike and I wish the very best for both of you. You're really lucky to leave this school. Write me a letter once in a while! Good luck always. -

Michelle -
I wish you all the luck in the world with Mike! I hope your marriage will be a long and happy one. He's a really lucky guy to have such a good girlfriend. Don't think I always act the way
I do in Wilbur's room.

The background of the image is a complex, abstract pattern of thick, hand-drawn blue lines on a white surface. These lines are arranged in various curved, wavy, and somewhat parallel formations, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall effect is reminiscent of a stylized, organic texture or perhaps a close-up of a natural material like wood or stone, rendered in a graphic, high-contrast style.
